POWERS TO RENEW DEMAND ON CHINA TO HOLD TROOPS

Washington, D. C. May 19.—The United States and other powers today decided to send another note to the Chinese Government, demanding that the Chinese troops surrounding the Shantung bandits be withdrawn.

This announcement was made today by the State Department in making public further reports of the American Legation regarding Americans and other foreign prisoners of the brigands.

A meeting of the Diplomatic Corps at Peking today decided to address the note to the Chinese Foreign Office calling on the Government to fulfill its promise to withdraw the troops.

Peking, May 19.—The situation arising from the kidnapping of foreign tourists near Lin Cheng, two weeks ago was growing darker today.

The Government announced that further negotiations with the bandits to the release of kidnapped tourists was futile. The announcement declared that the bandits evidently have grown in numerical strength and have demanded not only withdrawal of Government troops from the zone considered bandit territory, but from all of Shantung.

Granting of such demands would leave the outlaws masters of the entire province.

Another Philadelphia Payroll Robbery Today; Nelson Valve Co. Loser

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—Two payroll automobiles held up and robbed three employees of the Nelson Valve Company of an eight thousand and eight hundred dollar payroll today.

The highwaymen surrounded the payroll automobile as it neared the Nelson plant and covered the armed employees with revolvers. The men held up were unable to make a defense move. One bandit snatched the satchel, containing the money and the pair fled, escaping in an automobile.

FALLS TO DEATH 400 FEET DOWN DEEP MINE SHAFT

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 19.—Joseph Smith, aged fifty-two, finished his shift at the Ewen Colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal Company and headed the cage with eight other miners to go home to his family. At the top of the shaft Smith lost his balance and fell four hundred feet to the bottom. His body was horribly mangled. Smith had worked twenty-five years at the Ewen Colliery without an accident.

Oregon's Enemies Attempt To Discredit Him In Eyes Of U. S.

Mexico City, Mexico, May 19.—Enemies of the Oregon Government have begun a reign of terror against the United States here in an attempt to discredit the Recognition Conference now in session.

In addition to three attacks made since the first of the month, it is believed that officials of the United States in Mexico City has received threatening letters.

At the palatial Landa home, where commissioners Warren and Payne are living, police were camped throughout the night to prevent automobiles passing within two blocks. One detective explained this extreme measure was ordered to prevent any one throwing a bomb at the car from a passing car.

"FORCE CHINA TO PAY OR WE ARE DOOMED," IS MESSAGE SENT OUT TO POWERS BY ONE OF THE KIDNAPPED

Message From British Man Tells of Shooting of Some Chinese and He Fears the Same Fate.

CHINESE THREATENING
Shanghai, May 18.—Unless the foreign powers unite in forcing the Chinese government to realize that the Suchow bandits are ready to forfeit their lives and those of their captives in their determination to have their demands met, "we are doomed," was the word received here tonight from Leon Friedman, one of the Americans held in the Paotzu stronghold of the brigands.

American and British captives of the Shantung bandits will be shot next Tuesday if the Chinese troops are not withdrawn, according to the "final ultimatum" of the bandits, brought from the mountain stronghold by Marcel Oliver Berube, a Frenchman, one of the prisoners who was released for the purpose.

Berube was released unconditionally by the bandits, it was reported here tonight. When he arrived at Linchang yesterday it was said he was on parole and would have to return to captivity after delivering his message.

Wednesday the bandits shot five of their Chinese captives and "would not hesitate one moment about shooting the foreigners," according to Berube. He also is quoted as saying: "I am satisfied that at the slightest suspicious move on our part or by the Chinese troops, the bandits will kill one or two of us and send out the bodies."

SCHOOL HOUSE FIRE VICTIMS BURIED IN ONE HUGE GRAVE

Cleveland, S. C., May 19.—From the dismal ashes where the Cleveland Township schoolhouse and assembly hall reared its rickety frame as the pride of the cross-roads, the bodies of 76 men, women and children, burned to death in the disaster which has stunned the South, have been removed for immediate burial, today represent 15 per cent of the community's entire population.

Charred beyond recognition, more than half of the bodies recovered from the ruins were buried at dusk last evening in one large grave near the death trap.

Scenes at the open-air funeral were too pitiful to describe.

Cleveland, a loosely settled farm township comprising only 490 souls and having no incorporated village at the last census, put on squeaky shoes and standup collars to make fete at the children's "theatricals" in the upstairs hall of the school.

Actors in a farce called "Topsy Turvey," seen after 9 o'clock, jolted every look in one of the rafters, from which depended one of the krewe's lamps.

In that dreadful instant, Cleveland was plunged from innocent merriment and homely pride in its children to tragedy and horror beyond description.

The lamp struck the pine floor with a booming explosion which showered liquid fire upon the country folk in their seats and filled the room with flames.

There was a rush of blazing, screaming humanity for the single stairway.

A few nearest the windows smashed the panes and, with their clothing afire, hurried themselves like comets through the darkness. Two who did so had their backs broken by the fall.

Cleveland, S. C., May 19.—With the simple reverence of village people, stricken by a calamity almost too great for them to comprehend, the little township is burying its dead—the seventy-six, including forty-one children, who perished in the school house fire Thursday night.

One mound in the cemetery on the edge of the township marks the graves into which sixty-six bodies were lowered amid touching scenes last evening. Today the ten remaining bodies were buried.

The common grave today was covered with great mounds of flowers, tributes from friends and relatives and from distant strangers. The grave in which the sixty-six victims are buried is forty feet by twelve. It is in the cemetery of the Beulah Methodist Church. Candles, doctrines and sects were all forgotten in the service marking interment at sunset last night of the charred remains. Eight ministers, including a Bishop, assisted in the burial services.

Mrs. M. Dunsmore and Lex Dunsmore of Philadelphia, were in town yesterday.

E. L. Lathrop of Pittsburgh, is spending several days in Clearfield.

Altoona Policeman Shot Unknown Man Stealing Automobile In City

Altoona, Pa., May 19.—An unknown man was shot and instantly killed this afternoon by Sergeant of Police Ickes as the man was stealing an automobile in the center of the city.

BOY, 7, AND ALL OF FAMILY SAVINGS LOST IN FIRE

Johnstown, Pa., May 19.—Kenneth Phoenis, aged seven was burned to death and Jerry Hutsell, aged forty-three and Edward Rondabush, thirty-three were badly burned in attempting to rescue the boy when the Hutsell home at Border Station near here was consumed by fire early today.

The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. Almost one thousand dollars in cash, secreted in the house, was burned. The injured men were brought to a hospital here. Both are badly burned about the face and arms.

SECOND CHAPTER OF GRAMPIAN FINANCE OPENS IN COURT

The second chapter in the now celebrated Fleming-Subpina case, which has practically divided Grampian into two "armed camps," was opened in criminal court this morning when the case of Com. vs. Joseph Subpina was called for trial. Subpina is charged with perjury and "Squire Joe Fleming, former P. R. agent at Grampian, is the prosecutor.

Last May the relative positions of prosecutor and defendant were reversed as Subpina prosecuted Fleming for embezzlement of $200 which he had given Fleming for investment or the buying of some stocks, which Subpina alleged Fleming told him would keep him and his family in the future without work.

The transaction occurred shortly before Dier & Co., the Philadelphia stock brokers, went broke and Fleming reported to Subpina that his money went up in the smash. Subpina was dissatisfied with the explanation and coming to Clearfield laid his case before Attorneys Chase & Chase and they advised the arrest of Fleming on the embezzlement charge.

The trial resulted in Fleming's conviction and Judge Whitehead, who heard the case, sentenced him to pay a fine of $500, the cost of prosecution and serve 90 days in the county jail. Fleming was thereupon dismissed from the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

At the trial Subpina testified that he had never even got a receipt for his $200, nor had he ever received any return for same. Since that trial Fleming secured a cancelled check for $74, bearing Subpina's signature, which had been issued by the Altoona branch of Dier & Co., and which he

HOUTZDALE DOCTOR CHARGED WITH DRY LAW VIOLATIONS

This Week Prolific In Return of Offenders
From the Southeastern
Part of the County.

4 ARRESTS MADE

County Detective Snyder and State Troopers Barker, Pearce and Kirk will soon have the southeastern end of the county a real desert of Sahara if they continue their activities against liquor law violators in the future as they have been doing in the recent past. Hardly a day passes but these argus-eyed minions of the law make a foray into the land where the moonshine was wont to flow free and uncurbed and return with the scalps of one or more moonshiners dangling at their belts.

On Thursday last they potted large game at Houtzdale, when Dr. R. L. Williams, one of the town's leading physicians, was arrested by the county detective on a charge of violating the liquor law. The alleged violation has to do with the issuing of prescriptions for liquor by the physician who is then said to have supplied the liquor on same. Dr. Williams gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at September criminal court.

John Frisco, an alien residing in Decatur township, also ran foul of the law and will face criminal court in September on one charge. County Detective Snyder, Game Warden Davis and Troopers Barker, Pearce and Kirk dropped in at the Frisco home and picked him up on the charge of possessing fire arms. A search disclosed a .38-caliber "smoke wagon" and three gallons of moonshine also came to light during the search. Frisco was thereupon taken before "Squire McKinnon at Oscoda, where he paid the customary fine of $25 and gave up the gun. The officers then lodged a liquor law violation charge against him.

Friday the raiders swooped down on "Red Row" at Madara, where much red liquor is said to flow every once in a blue moon and Anthony Lebanksy and Wasco Barranski were arrested in the "dry net" when their haul was completed.

Lebanksy was divested of a complete still and outfit, three gallons of whiskey and about fifty gallons of mash. Barranski also was separated from a complete outfit for making his own but consumption had been such a stage in the recent past that but one quart of "oh, be joyful" was on hand for evidence.

Both alleged manufacturers were bailed before "Judge" Ruffner and held them in $500 bail each for their appearance at September criminal court.

BASEBALL SUCCESS DEPENDS ON WHAT THE FANS WILL DO

If the baseball fans of Clearfield can keep their straw lids on their heads and their feet on the ground, Clearfield will have a bang up team this season. The plan to have an all home talent team is the only one that will work successfully and this has been the contention of the Progress for several years. Let those who demand big league baseball go to New York or some other seaport, we care not where, but we want to see a home boy knock the "kiver" off the old apple.

The team is coming along in good shape. Last evening there were fifteen out to practice and player Manager Pierce is adopting McGraw tactics in handling the team. Pierce is boss and that is the right dope. Let the fans give the job over to him and keep hands off. Altogether there are about twenty candidates for the team and the men that are finally selected for the team after several trying workouts will cross bats with a home talent team from Philadelphia on June 7th.

The pitching staff looks good and they are loosening up in fine style

SALVATION ARMY BEGINS TO SEE DAYLIGHT IN ITS CAMPAIGN FOR $20,000 BUILDING SUBSCRIPTION

Woodland and Bigler Men of Brick Works Gave the Army
a Wonderful Lift During the Past Week.

THE TOTAL IS NOW $14,000

Wonderful responses from the people of all classes is marking the campaign of the Salvation Army in this city and county to raise the building appeal of $20,000.00 inclusive of the working budget for the year 1923.

This response has been made in spite of the fact that no drug method were tolerated, nothing favoring of a "drive" has been countenanced and in the main the advisory board together with the officers of the Salvation Army have been content to appeal to the public through the local press and by personal contact.

Employees of a few of the brick plants of the local area of the city this week subscribed over $1,000, which, with the amounts coming in from the numerous plans, offices and mines brings up the total subscribed now to nearly $14,000.

Mr. George I. Thurston, the chairman of the board, is enthusiastic over the outcome so far and feels assured and confident that the people of Clearfield interested will quickly do the rest. Reports show that the clerks in the local stores and offices have been doing bravely and wonderfully well, said Reuben Neving and Houston Hartwick today. The Army leaders figure the amounts received when all is in from the store clerks and operatives will be quite impressive. The district supervisor in charge of the appeal together with the local commander, Captain Watson, believe that all the people not yet donating will do so this coming week.

The treasurer of the appeal is Roy I. Fulton, County National bank.

The employees of the lower works and the Hope works of the Harbison Walker Refractories Co. at Woodland subscribed almost $400 to the appeal. The employees of the William Grove Brick Co. at Bigler subscribed $100 to the Salvation Army building appeal.

U. S. SENATORS REED AND PEPPER COMING HERE WEEK OF JUNE 4

Washington, May 18.—The far-heralded tour of their state in an automobile by Senators Pepper and Reed of Pennsylvania is to begin at Pittsburgh on June 2, according to plans announced today. From Pittsburgh they are to go to Erie and thence through the North tier of counties to the New Jersey border and then south to Philadelphia. The tentative itinerary takes the senators through 33 of the 67 counties of the state. It was emphasized by Pepper that the trip is to be "educational" rather than political.

No Set Stops Billed

Pepper said it had not been decided at what points stops would be made. Consequently, only the counties on the itinerary were disclosed. These, in the order in which they are to be visited, are Allegheny, Butler, Armstrong, Indiana, Clearfield, Jefferson, Clarion, Forest, Venango, Crawford, Erie, Warren, McKean, Elk, Cameron, Potter, Tioga, Bradford, Susquehanna, Lackawanna, Wayne, Pike, Monroe, Luzerne, Columbia, Montour, Northumberland, Schuylkill, Carbon, Lehigh, Bucks, Montgomery and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Pepper and Mrs. Reed expect to accompany their husbands on the tour.

"Wild Rose" Big Hit In Presentation Last Eve. By Girls' Glee Club

Music week in Clearfield came to a close last evening when the Girls' Glee Club of the High School presented the charming little two-act operetta "Wild Rose" under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Hopkins, supervisor of music of the Clearfield schools.

The entire cast of the operetta was selected with care, particular attention being paid to the adaptability of the personality of the actress to the part to be played. Beatrice McDowell as "Rose" and Elizabeth Wilson as "Buttons" being the outstanding stars of the cast.

The choruses went along with a swing and a snap and their performance showed a careful training from start to finish.

New York, May 19.—George the cook in Bertrand's Restaurant, was busy cleaning fish. Suddenly out there came on the point of his knife a diamond ring. It had the initials "D. E. D." and the year "1897" was engraved upon it. It was probably worth six hundred dollars. George is now cleaning fish with renewed vigor.

Diphtheria Flareup Is Cause Of Concern By The Board Of Health

Secretary Gaulin of the Board of Health reports eleven new cases of communicable disease for the past seven days. Of these five were diphtheria, three measles, and one chicken pox. During the same period eleven cases were released from quarantine.

There is at present a total of 11 cases of contagion under quarantine in the town. They are located as follows:

First Ward: Measles 1.

"FATHER AND SON" NIGHT IS OBSERVED BY THE COINONIANS

The Father and Son movement, called, took deep root with the members of the Coinonia Club of the Trinity Methodist Church as was evidenced by the attendance at last night's observance which reached a total of 122, three fourths of which total at least were boys of tender age. One commentator says, "another of those delightful dinner meetings of the club was held," but we think that this was more than just another of those delightful meetings. A very fine dinner was served by the ladies. Aid of the church assisted by several young ladies. Practically every club member brought a son or a borrowed son for the occasion.

There was a distinct Curwensville flavor to the meeting. Dr. J. C. Collins being the orator. His message was along the line of what a boy could get out of the church and his remarks were very much to the point and brought out a point of view which was entirely new and a revelation to the boys present. Fred Robinson was there also to entertain the audience with the slight of hand and this was as much enjoyed by the adults as the boys. Another item of diversion from the more solid thought was Little Bobby Stevenson, the contortionist and tumbler. Bobby was at his best and a lot of the old boys are jealous of his suppleness. President Warner brought out some interesting historical facts in his introduction of Rev. Collins. He said that Clearfield and Curwensville were operated as one Methodist charge from about 1822 when the field was opened until Civil War times. Clearfield church was given a separate charter June 23, 1900 and the present church edifice was built in 1905. Rev. Collins gave an inspiring talk to the men and boys showing that as youths they get much from schools and churches and therefore owned much of their success to such agencies and they should in later years try to give back to such institutions their strength and support that they may continue

GREAT ACTIVITY AT HOME BUILDER SITE ON FOURTH STREET

Lots Staked Off and All
Are Numbered; Shade
Trees Planted; Water Lines and Sewers In.
SEE IT TOMORROW

If anyone is in doubt as to whether the Home Builders Co. means business in its development of the home sites upon the old Weaver tract, he should take a walk up in that direction and see what changes have already been wrought. Every day the weather permits, gangs of men are at work putting things in shape so that at the earliest possible date the lots may be put on the market for the benefit of the large number who are already trying to secure sites for building.

Under the able supervision of Mr. E. W. Hess the various lines of improvement are being laid out and coordinated. The lots have all been staked off and numbered. They are already at work grading down Leavy avenue and draining and filling over various sections that require it. Shade trees are being set by the borough shade tree commission's corps of men along all the main streets. The water company has laid temporary connections for the water to be used in sewer construction, pavements, and curbs.

The Graham Lumber Co. have started to erect a shelter house and office where the prospective purchaser can see the blue prints and plans, and go over the sales contract with those in charge. Within a very short period therefore we will see houses going up all over this area which will be the pride of the owners as well as of the town. The body of public spirited men who are giving their time and experience to this movement as well as the organization which conceived it, are certainly to be congratulated.

DETOUR STARTS ON GRAMPIAN ROAD AND IT IS PRETTY ROUGH

Pottsville Construction Company have started grading operations and will be pouring concrete toward Grampian from Regma Watering Trough within the next day or two, and the road was closed last evening.

The detour has been established from Curwensville to Grampian and to the left from the church at the upper end of Grampian borough through the Irish settlement and back on to the concrete at Chestnut Grove school house at the top of hill from Hartshill's store.

Traffic should have no trouble in finding their way over the limits of this detour as signs have been placed at both ends and at all intersecting roads within the limits of the detour section. From Grampian to a point within one mile of the concrete the dirt road is in excellent condition; the last mile is not so good but entirely travelable and the supervisors of Bloom township have been requested to do the necessary work to put the road in good travelable condition.

Bishop Gannon confirmed a large class at Curwensville yesterday and following the ceremonies here this morning departed in his automobile for Frenchville, where another class was confirmed upon his arrival there.

Mrs. G. W. Thomas and son Arthur and Mrs. R. J. Maxwell spent last evening visiting friends in Philadelphia. They motored over and back in Thomas' new Dodge car.

alleges was a payment on account of the $200, and thereupon made information against Subpina charging him with perjury.

No notes were taken of the testimony at the Fleming trial and the prosecution has resorted to the expedient of summoning five of the jurors who heard the evidence and convicted Fleming to give testimony as to Subpina's testimony at that trial. This is the first such procedure was had in this court and is among the peculiarities of this litigation. The juror-witnesses all signed an affidavit prepared and presented to them by Fleming previous to his bringing the suit and this affidavit purports to present the alleged perjured evidence.

It was found just before the noon recess that the case could not be completed today and in order that jurors might be able to get to their homes the case was continued until Monday morning. Two or three of the jurors had been examined before the adjournment and the attorneys for the defense had at least one of them recall that the story of the $74 check had been told at the previous trial and was alleged to be a part of another transaction Subpina had with the Altona brokerage concern.

The case has created a great deal of interest in and about Grampian, more than a score of the town's leading citizens being called to court as witnesses.

ACKNOWLEDGE PLOT TO BLOW UP PRISON AT PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—A plot to blow up the eastern penitentiary, with a view of effecting the delivery of the one thousand seven hundred prisoners was frustrated recently, it was learned on high authority today.

J. Washington Logue, Secretary of the Board of Prison Inspectors today admitted that explosives had been found in the Penitentiary but that no harm had been done.

A grand jury investigation of conditions at the penitentiary is now under way and it is understood that their report will describe fully this jail delivery plot.

The explosives, it is said, were in a convict's cell when found. Discovery of the powerful substance resulted when the convict "squealed" because he feared the "stuff" would go off in his cell.

A feature of the Colonia Club dinners that make them very enjoyable is the loyalty of Dick Martin's orchestra which has always been on the job to enliven the occasion and the dinner would not be complete without them. Their performance last evening was especially enjoyable. Alex Black contributed to the musical end of the program by two whistling solos and drew a hearty round of applause.

Although the evening was more or less of a male affair, the diners welcomed the talk of Mrs. Flegal who gave the men something to think about. Mrs. Flegal put some very pertinent facts and queries before the diners and her talk will be productive of greater effort along worth while lines so far as boy welfare is concerned.

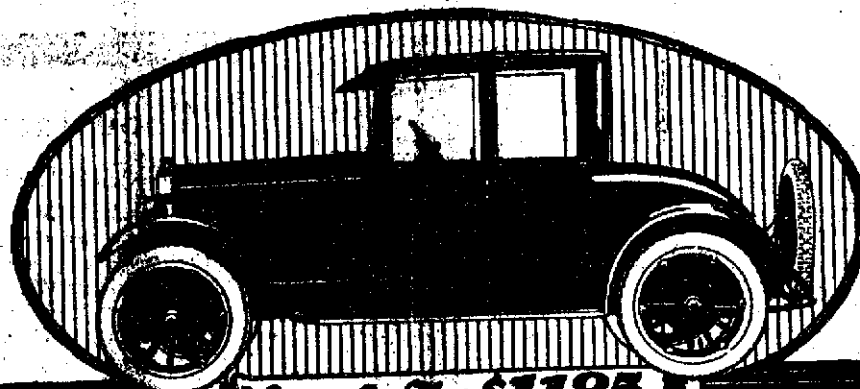

The Colonia seeks to inculcate in the minds and hearts of its members a spirit of communion and fellowship to the common end that the mass spirituality of the church might be improved and their combined efforts be made more effective.

CONSIDER PREMIER WOMAN HELD MAKES BONAR LAW FORCED CONFESSION SHE IS TO RESIGN VERY SOON MRS. CLARA PHILLIPS

London, May 19.—Premier Bonar Law is certain to resign, his friends, political experts and the British Press agree. The resignation may come very soon, but almost certainly before the end of July, it is learned on best authority.

Paris, May 19.—Andrew Bonar Law, British Premier, who has been critically ill here, left for London today. His condition causes his friends great worry. He was unable to keep his appointments here. Traveling was obviously a great strain upon him.

U. S. GOLF TEAM WINS WALKER CUP

St. Andrews, Scotland, May 19.—America's amateur golf team, coming from behind with a great rally in the last round, won the Walker International Cup here this afternoon from the British team.

Thos. S. Jackson, of Phillipsburg; Dr. J. Currier, of Grampian, were out of town visitors on Friday.

Mrs. Geo. Thomas of South Fourth street leaves this morning on the 8:20 for Philadelphia, where she goes to attend a convention of the Pocomtocs, expecting to be gone about ten days.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, May 19.—A sensational confession that she is none other than Clara Phillips, hammer murderer, who was sought throughout the western world since she escaped from the Los Angeles Jail last, was made today by the woman who has been held on suspicion. American detectives arrived to identify the woman and simultaneously with their arrival the woman, who previously maintained silence, attacking any one who sought to learn her secret, broke down and confessed she is the woman who beat to death Mrs. Alberta Meadows.

ENTERTAINS HIS FRIENDS

A delightful party was given at the Crystal Spring Hunting Club last evening which was attended by about thirty invited guests. The host was Ashley E. Woolridge of Woodland and all are agreed today that he was a real entertainer. A fine dinner was served and the evening was enjoyably spent as only gentlemen and good fellows can enjoy.

H. A. Adams, of West Pine street, who was operated upon for appendicitis at the Clearfield hospital on Thursday last is convalescing nicely at this time.

alleges was a payment on account of the $200, and thereupon made information against Subpina charging him with perjury.

No notes were taken of the testimony of the Fleming trial and the prosecution has resorted to the expedient of summoning five of the jurors who heard the evidence and convicted Fleming to give testimony as to Subpina's testimony at that trial. This is the first such procedure was had in this court and is among the peculiarities of this litigation. The juror-witnesses all signed an affidavit prepared and presented to them by Fleming previous to his bringing the suit and this affidavit purports to present the alleged perjured evidence.

It was found just before the noon recess that the case could not be completed today and in order that jurors might be able to get to their homes the case was continued until Monday morning. Two of three of the jurors had been examined before the adjournment and the attorneys for the defense had at least one of them recall that the story of the $74 check had been told at the previous trial and was alleged to be a part of another transaction on Subpina had with the Altona hotel erage concern.

The case has created a great deal of interest in and about Grampian, more than a score of the town's leading citizens being called to court as witnesses.

GIRL, 20, IS FOUND BRUTALLY SLAIN NEAR HOME BARN

Pateron, N. J., May 19.—The murdered body of Miss Jessie Reikema, aged twenty, was found behind a barn a few blocks from her home early today. Several of the girl's teeth had been knocked out and it is believed she was strangled.

The girl failed to return home last night and her mother, hurrying out this morning to find her, saw a crowd around the barn and recognized her daughter. Miss Reikema went with a friend, another girl, to a picture show last night.

ACKNOWLEDGE PLOT TO BLOW UP PRISON AT PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—A plot to blow up the eastern penitentiary, with a view of effecting the delivery of the one thousand seven hundred prisoners was frustrated recently, it was learned on high authority today.

J. Washington Logue, Secretary of the Board of Prison Inspectors today admitted that explosives had been found in the Penitentiary but that no harm had been done.

A grand jury investigation of conditions at the penitentiary is now under way and it is understood that their report will describe fully this jail delivery plot.

The explosives, it is said, were in a convict's cell when found. Discovery of the powerful substance resulted when the convict "squealed" because he feared the "stuff" would go off in his cell.

About 50 young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnett at Pine Grove last evening to attend a farewell party given to their son Allen C. Burnett, who is returning to resume his duties in the 81st Co. Coast Artillery, Panama Canal Zone.

A feature of the Coinonia Club dinners that make them very enjoyable is the loyalty of Dick Martin's orchestra which has always been on the job to enliven the occasion and the dinner would not be complete without them. Their performance last evening was especially enjoyable. Alex Black contributed to the musical end of the program by two whistling solos and drew a hearty round of applause.

Although the evening was more or less of a male affair, the diners welcomed the talk of Mrs. Flegal who gave the men something to think about. Mrs. Flegal put some very pertinent facts and queries before the diners and her talk will be productive of greater effort along worth while lines so far as boy welfare is concerned.

The Coinonia seeks to inculcate in the minds and hearts of its members a spirit of communion and fellowship to the common end that the mass spirituality of the church might be improved and their combined efforts be made more effective.

This idea of a home talent team has met a ready response at Phillipsburg, Oncoola, DuBois and Houtzdale and some mighty interesting contest will be the inevitable result.

Manager Pierce is still on the look out for good material and all baseball players are invited to go over to the park any evening at 5:30 for practice. Rigid regulations are prescribed. Every player must sign up on arrival for practice and the fellow's name that is missing on this registry of practice will not be permitted to play at a game on the following day.

Now what are the fans going to do about this team. There is just one thing for them to do and that is to boost. It is style now for all hammers to be laid away until October and the loyal fans should immediately buy a lot of muzzles to be used when the knockers' quartette begins to warm up.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. L. C.

If the practise of allowing kids to patrol the town and community with BB guns shooting at every bird, animal or anything else that takes their fancy is not stopped, some person is going to lose an eye or two right here in Clearfield. There must be at least half a hundred kids in Clearfield to be seen about town every day shooting at sparrows and other birds incessantly. The kids don't care where they shoot or what they shoot at and wounded robins and other property, insectivorous birds have been picked up in several sections of the town as a result of this airgun crusade. A lot of older kids are also engaged in the very dangerous practise of shooting blank cartridges in revolvers. Both these acts are violations of town borough ordinances and state law and a stop should be put to them by our borough authorities before some one is permanently injured. Ugh! town and city in this section has already been forced to take such action

They say that one man's misfortune oftentimes is another man's gain but the fellow who held up the doctors who were unfortunate enough to upset off the state road into his wheat field just beyond Bigler about ten days ago, must have peculiar ideas as to the eternal fitness of things when he demanded his pound of flesh and made the injured crew come across with ten dollars for the damage he alleges the car wrought to his growing wheat when it rased off the road and toppled over into the field. It sure does take all kinds of people to make a world and we hope that the supply of some varieties is small

A total of $70,757,040, all but $17,500,000 of which was annual income from invested capital, has been spent for "the well-being of mankind, throughout the world" by the Rockefeller Foundation, No. 61 Broadway, since its formation ten years ago.

Though public health and medical education have come to be the principal undertakings of the foundation the emergency of war found it ready to spend $22,298,541 for war work, a sum exceeding only the medical education expenditures.

Almost all the work money was spent from 1914 to 1920. It included contributions of $10,000,000 to the American and International Red Cross organizations, and $10,000,000 to the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board, Y. W. C. A. and other camp and community welfare.

Medical education, the largest classification, cost $24,710,859 in the ten years, with nearly $9,000,000 for the Peking Union Medical College and the Shanghai Medical School. Thirty-two hospitals and many medical schools in China, were aided with $2,107,457. Nearly $3,500,000 was spent in the United States for medical education and research and about $8,000,000 in Canada, England, France and Belgium.

There was $6,378,772 spent to study and control hookworm, malaria and yellow fever. $2,139,947 to fight tuberculosis in France and other countries for public health. A total of $18,188,838. John H. K. received $7,090,838 and Harvard University $1,260,534.

Other causes, not included in war work, public health or medical education, cost the foundation $4,503,123. The largest contributions were $1,000,000 for the Palisades "Interstate Park and an equal amount for Herbert Hoover's American Relief Administration's feeding of European children. The causes helped include studies of municipal government, unemployment, industrial relations and governmental problems. The foundation bid refuge the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor and other undertakings were also helped.

The administration work that supervised the distribution of the $76,757,040 cost $1,107,123, and interest being represented by detachable coupons. Principal and interest will be free of any tax levied by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania except succession or inheritance tax. No bid will be considered for less than par and accrued interest. Bonds callable in part or whole at any interest period on or before September 1, 1943, and will be redeemed in numerical order. The School Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

CORPORATION TAX PROPOSAL AGAIN IS CONSIDERED

Harrisburg, May 17.—The latest tax proposal to be given serious consideration is a small levy on either the gross or net profits of corporations, with the exception of public utilities and transportation companies. Such a plan is understood to be advocated by certain Philadelphia representatives, including Franklin Spencer Edmonds. The subject will be discussed at a conference here Monday night in which Senator William S. Vare, T. Larry Eyre and other leaders of the House and Senate will join.

Auditor General Lewis is now collecting data on the subject of such a tax at the request of Edmonds. It is anticipated Lewis will be in position to inform the Senators as to what revenue could be expected from a nominal levy by the time they return here next week.

A four-mill tax of this character is levied by the state of New York. It produces approximately $40,000,000 every two years, just about twice the amount of new revenue needed to meet the emergency condition in the finances of Pennsylvania.

Early in the session Edmonds discussed such a tax with the leaders of the Assembly, but it was given scant consideration. Now, however, with all other tax proposals either killed or in such shape as to preclude serious consideration, the Edmonds plan is coming to the front.

Consideration of this proposal will start the tax mill revolving Monday night all over again and on Tuesday the House will be again thrown into the throes of financial discussion. Lewis is prepared to furnish data requested of him today by a resolution adopted by the House on motion of Representative W. Cloud Alexander of Delaware.

A great deal of mystery attend the purpose of this resolution. It asks the auditor general to furnish an estimate of the revenues for the next two years, the total estimated expenditures, the total estimated appropriation liabilities and the estimated amount of such liabilities that can be lapsed.

In the early days of the session the auditor general had placed on the desk of each member a booklet containing just such information as the Alexander resolution requests. Why he is asked to do the same job over again is inexplicable. The request is made either for the purpose of obtaining from the auditor general any idea he may have of increased revenues above the total given by him when the budget was prepared or for the purpose of again starting the contention that the necessity for new taxation can be obviated by lapsing appropriation liabilities.

Repeatedly Governor Pinchot has assured leaders of the House and Senate he had considered everything that could be lapsed and charged such items off when the budget was prepared and the total liabilities of $29,000,000 arrived at. The fact is, about $15,000,000 of that total will be due in cold cash in the near future and if the state cannot pay it will be forced into the position of a defaulting creditor.

Owl Stopped Wheels of Industry. The curious combination of an owl and a steel trap in which the bird had become caught and flown away, trap and all, alighting on a high-powered electric cable carrying 11,000 volts of electricity to run a mill at Coopersburg, Pa., stopped the power and threw several hundred men out of work for several hours. Liquefied, after several hours' search, located the owl, burned to a cinder.

JEWETT SIX PAIGE BUILT

High-Pressure Oiling— 2 Gallons a Minute!

LUBRICATION is life—in motors. Because it defeats wear and vibration. Jewett has a hollow crankshaft, high-pressure system, forcing 2 gallons of oil per minute to all main and connecting rod bearings, and spraying the entire internal mechanism. Metal never rubs metal in a Jewett motor—a thin film of oil guards bearings.

The results of such ideal lubrication are real smoothness and decided silence. Further, the continuous oil-stream tends to keep bearings cool, and Jewett takes long distances at high speeds, climbs continued grades, or trudges over roads, without overheating. You know what happens to cars equipped with circulating splash lubrication, under like conditions. Let us show you the Jewett! You try to overhear it.

Political Paragraphs

ODELL HAUSER'S COLUMN

With the events of the present week at Harrisburg in mind, lady or gentleman—or any child, for that matter—is invited to the edge of the platform and tell the rest of us what is going to happen. Any lady or gentleman—or any child—will do. Indeed, the less he or she knows about the political situation, the more likely it is to be correct.

Up to the time the writer left Harrisburg this week for the east, he hadn't found anybody who would venture an opinion on how the scrambled eggs the House had made of the tax-on-appropriation situation was to be unscrambled, or whether it would be unscrambled at all, and if so, when.

The chaos that prevails at Harrisburg surpasses anything old-timers can remember within recent years. The legislative week which began on Monday, May 14, 1923, is quite likely to go echoing down the halls of time for a considerable period yet to come.

In these paragraphs last week the remark was made that the present seven-day period would see either a definite tax program established, or worse confusion on the subject than has yet prevailed. The latter alternative wins. Up to this week, the House did not know where it was going, but it was on its way. Now it is stopped completely.

For the benefit of those who may have lost some of the threads of the narrative, it will be worth while to revise the situation briefly in order that they may understand it fully.

When the House of Representatives assembled last Monday night it had on its calendar for special order of business the three bills which, after months of marking time, the ways and means committee had brought forth as its program to meet the financial demands of the commonwealth for the next two years.

These bills were the Whiteman bill, increasing the tax on gasoline; the Harer bill imposing an additional levy on present subjects of taxation with some exceptions; and the Alexander luxury tax on various forms of tobacco products, and on chewing gum.

These taxes were all applicable for two years only and intended to meet the present emergency in the state's finances in conformity with the Governor's position that some $29,000,000 in past appropriation liability should be wiped off the books once in order that after this two years of stress the state's business might be on a pay-as-you-go basis. These taxes would have been nearly $20,000,000 in additional revenue, which would have been enough to meet all obligations, including the increased demands that come under the terms of the Edmonds Act for school development purposes.

The delay and bickering of months was due to be made up for on Monday night. The taxes decided on were supposed to have met all demands of the various schools of tax thought. They were slated to be passed triumphantly. And their passing was to have been the beginning of the end of the session.

What actually happened, however, was far different from that. When the House began to act on the tax bills, it was discovered to be in a highly temperamental state of mind. It flamed for blood. It swamped the Whiteman gasoline bill by a vote of 163 against and 30 in favor. When it got at the Harer surtax bill it administered an even more overwhelming defeat, which went to the tune of 175 against and 21 in favor.

By this time a sort of hysteria reigned. This was evidenced by the fact that the Alexander luxury tax bill was not even allowed to reach a vote, but was thrown off the calendar. Mr. Alexander made a plea to postpone consideration of it, saying the other two bills had been defeated and the House ought to keep some measure at hand to be amended into some agreeable form of raising the money that would have to be raised.

But he was not listened to. In this miniature French Revolution that was going on, his bill was not even decently gulped as the others had been, but was beaten and clubbed to death by the mob in the form of Mr. Spangler's motion to drop it from the calendar, which was done.

The principal battle had been preceded by a skirmish on the manufacturers' tax, a fact which no one should lose sight of, because its outcome motivated considerable of what was later done.

The session had scarcely started when Representative Armstrong moved that the ways and means committee be discharged from consideration of the Stark bill, imposing a four-mill tax on the capital stock of manufacturing concerns. The group of rural members who are strongly devoted to the manufacturers' tax proposition had looked on this move as their opportunity to get the tax before the House. It takes only sixty votes to discharge a committee from consideration of a bill and they had sixty votes.

However, Representative John M. Flynn sprang a parliamentary surprise on them. He countered with a motion that Mr. Armstrong's motion be indefinitely postponed. Sixty votes counted for naught in disposing of the Flynn motion, which was carried by a majority vote of 103 ayes to 75 nays. The proposal to discharge the committee was therefore indefinitely tabled and the rural members could not get at the manufacturers' tax bill. This fact solidified them later in voting against all the measures that were brought up. If they could not have the manufacturers' tax, they would have no substitute.

At this precise moment, therefore, the House stands in the position of having passed and sent to the Senate an appropriation bill which avowedly calls for over $20,000,000 more than the present state taxes will yield, and of having definitely and specifically defeated all tax measures designed to raise the necessary balance.

That, of course, is a difficult, not to say an impossible situation. Since no new tax bills may be introduced if one member objects, and since the only bills in the possession of the ways and means committee are four or five that were long since discarded as having no practical value in solving the problem, it is evident there is only one possible way the House can meet its difficulty, which is by reversing itself and reconsidering one or more of the bills it defeated with a hue and cry last Monday.

If the temper of the House continues to be what it was last Monday night, there is no chance of its reconsidering. The remarkable thing about the demonstration was that it showed an overwhelming majority of the House unanimous against any and all forms of new taxation. Not even the most confirmed tax skeptics were prepared for the lengths to which the slaughter went.

Should the House abide by that attitude, a most serious situation will present itself. The appropriation bill will carry amounts over $20,000,000 in excess of the state's expectation of revenue. Either the General Assembly or the Governor will have to cut it by that amount, and if past experience is the guide accepted, the task will be left to the Governor.

Mrs. Pinchet has already reacted to that possibility. Sources recognized as exploiting the Governor's viewpoint have already declared it to be his intention to make the reduction in the form of protecting the appropriations to the common schools at the expense of the institutions of higher education, the appropriations of state aid to charitable institutions, and the rewards for township road construction.

It is possible to see in that declaration rather an attempt to make the members of the House stop, look and listen than anything else. The items the Governor is made to say he is considering reducing represent a collective in one place of the appropriations the average legislator takes most to heart. There are few districts in the state, for instance, where it would not be more or less embarrassing for the members to return home with the news they had done something which prevented their local hospitals, homes and other charitable institutions from receiving state aid money.

Already there are attempts being made to straighten matters out, of course. There is considerable talk of a sales tax. But the official fixers are first trying another line. The talk is that the rural members have agreed to support a two cent tax on gasoline provided they get a two mill tax on manufacturing corporations instead of the four mill tax called for by the Stark bill. Both bills, already defeated, would have to be reconsidered.

Em's stories are said to have been sent to Joseph R. Grundy, political head of the manufacturing interests, representing that Republican organization leaders would welcome this solution of their difficulties and asking him to agree to it on behalf of the manufacturers. Anyone who desires to, may be optimistic in forecasting a favorable decision from him.

Fa'ing that, there is no telling what may happen. The session is now nearly five months old and it has got nowhere on its principal problem. There is no one today who can offer tangible hope that it will get anywhere. And always in the background lurks the spectre that if it adjourns without solving these problems, the Governor will call it back in special session to try again.

COURT NOTES

The jury in the case of Com. vs. T. D. Forsyth, Walter Hyde and Clark Green which was tried before Judge Bell yesterday, returned a verdict this morning in which they found Messrs. Forsyth and Hyde guilty of assault and battery and riot and acquitted Green of both charges. The prosecutor was a drayman from Somerset county, who charged that he was assaulted and mobbed when he went to Kellytown and attempted to move the household goods of a miner who had gone to Kellytown from Somerset county and desired to return.

James Hardy, a 17-year-old O'ceco boy, who entered a plea of guilty to charge of rape, and who was given an indeterminate sentence to the reformatory by Judge Bell, was taken to Huntingdon today by Sheriff Lowell.

EFFORT TO BREAK SECURITY PRICES OF LITTLE AVAL

New York, N. Y., May 19.—Another determined effort to break security values was made in the short session today. It met with some success, several new lows being recorded for the year while steel common touched its old low. Sellers did not have everything their own way, however. California Petroleum proved the test feature scoring and gained to about a point following a favorable earnings report.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

If the practice of allowing kids to patrol the town and community with BB guns shooting at every bird, animal or anything else that takes their fancy is not stopped, some person is going to lose an eye or two right here in Clearfield. There must be at least half a hundred kids in Clearfield to be seen about town every day shooting at sparrows and other birds incessantly. The kids don't care where they shoot or what they shoot at and wounded robins and other prey of insectivorous birds have been picked up in several sections of the town as a result of this airgun crusade. A lot of older kids are also engaged in the very dangerous practice of shooting blank cartridges in revolver. Both these acts are violations of law and a stop should be put to them by our borough authorities before some one is permanently injured. Every town and city in this section has already been forced to take such action.

They say that one man's misfortune is another man's gain, but the fellow who held up the doctors who were unfortunate enough to upset off the state road into his wheat field just beyond Bigler about ten days ago, must have peculiar ideas as to the eternal fitness of things when he demanded his pound of flesh and made the injured crew come across with ten dollars for the damage he alleges the car wrought to his growing wheat when it raced off the road and toppled over into the field. It sure does take all kinds of people to make a world and we hope that this supply of some varieties is small.

A total of $76,757,040, all but $17,500,000 of which was annual income from invested capital, has been spent for "the well-being of mankind, throughout the world" by the Rockefeller Foundation, No. 61 Broadway, since its formation ten years ago.

Though public health and medical education have come to be the principal undertakings of the foundation, the emergency of war found it ready to spend $22,295,541 for war work, a sum exceeding only the medical education expenditure.

Almost all the money, however, was spent from 1915 to 1920. It included contributions of $1,841,159 to the American and International Red Cross organizations, and $10,974,299 to the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board, Y. W. C. A. and other camp and community welfare.

Medical education, the largest class, has cost $24,710,859 in the ten years, with nearly $9,000,000 for the Peking Union Medical College and the Shanghai Medical School. Thirty-two hospitals and many medical schools in China, were aided with $12,704,457. Nearly $3,500,000 was spent in the United States for medical education and research and about $8,000,000 in Canada, England, France and Belgium.

There was $6,378,072 spent to study and control hookworm, malaria and yellow fever. $2,119,945 to fight tuberculosis in France and Belgium. $1,119,945 to fight tuberculosis in France and Belgium. $1,119,945 to fight tuberculosis in France and Belgium.

Other causes, not included in war work, public health or medical education, cost the foundation $4,500,128. The largest contributions were $1,000,000 for the Palisades Interstate Park and an equal amount for Herbert Hoover's American Relief Administration's feeding of European children. The causes helped include studies of municipal government, unemployment, industrial relations and governmental problems. The foundation had refuge the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor and other undertakings were also helped.

The administration work that supervised the distribution of the $76,757,040 cost $1,107,123.

CORPORATION TAX PROPOSAL AGAIN IS CONSIDERED

Harrisburg, May 17.—The latest tax proposal to be given serious consideration is a small levy on either the gross or net profits of corporations, with the exception of public utilities and transportation companies. Such a plan is understood to be advocated by certain Philadelphia representatives, including Franklin Spencer Edmonds. The subject will be discussed at a conference here Monday night in which Senator William S. Vare, T. Larry Byre and other leaders of the House and Senate will join.

Auditor General Lewis is now collecting data on the subject of such a tax at the request of Edmonds. It is anticipated Lewis will be in position to inform the Senators as to what revenue could be expected from a nominal levy by the time they return here next week.

A four-mill tax of this character is levied by the state of New York. It produces approximately $40,000,000 every two years, just about twice the amount of new revenue needed to meet the emergency condition in the finances of Pennsylvania.

Early in the session Edmonds discussed such a tax with the leaders of the Assembly, but it was given scant consideration. Now, however, with all other tax proposals either killed or in such shape as to preclude serious consideration, the Edmonds plan is coming to the front.

Consideration of this proposal will start the tax mill revolving Monday night all over again and on Tuesday the House will be again thrown into the throes of financial discussion. Lewis is prepared to furnish data requested of him today by a resolution adopted by the House on motion of Representative W. Cloud Alexander of Delaware.

A great deal of mystery attend the purpose of this resolution. It asks the auditor general to furnish an estimate of the revenues for the next five years, the total estimated expenditures, the total estimated appropriation liabilities and the estimated amount of such liabilities that can be lapsed.

In the early days of the session the auditor general had placed on the desk of each member a booklet containing just such information as the Alexander resolution requests. Why he is asked to do the same job over again is inexplicable. The request is made either for the purpose of obtaining from the auditor general any idea he may have of increased revenues above the total given by him when the budget was prepared or for the purpose of again starting the contention that the necessity for new taxation can be obviated by lapsing appropriation liabilities.

Repeatedly Governor Pinchot has assured leaders of the House and Senate he had considered everything that could be lapsed and charged such items off when the budget was prepared and the total liabilities of $29,000,000 arrived at. The fact is, about $15,000,000 of that total will be due in cold cash in the near future and if the state cannot pay it will be forced into the position of a defaulting creditor.

Owl Stopped Wheels of Industry. The curious combination of an owl and a steel trap in which the bird had become caught and flown away, trap and all, lighting on a high-powered electric cable carrying 11,000 volts of electricity to run a mill at Goodwyn, Conn., stopped the power and threw several hundred men out of work for several hours. Lynemag, after several hours' search, located the owl, burned to a cinder.

High-Pressure Oiling— 2 Gallons a Minute!

LUBRICATION is life—in motors. Because it defeats wear and vibration. Jewett has a hollow crankshaft, high-pressure system, forcing 2 gallons of oil per minute to all main and connecting rod bearings, and spraying the entire internal mechanism. Metal never rubs metal in a Jewett motor—a thin film of oil guards bearings.

The results of such ideal lubrication are real smoothness and decided silence. Further, the continuous oil-stream tends to keep bearings cool, and Jewett takes long distances at high speeds, climbs continued grades, or trudges rough roads, without overheating. You know what happens to cars equipped with circulating splash lubrication, under like conditions. Jewett shows you the Jewett! You try to overheat.

Curwensville's Own Column

Prof. Grant Norris has been chosen and accepted the honor of being the Memorial Day orator. His address last year was one of the best and most logical ever delivered in Curwensville.

Sunday, May 27th, the memorial sermon will be preached in the Baptist church, Rev. Cameron, the pastor, being the speaker.

The American Legion post of Curwensville have promulgated an edict to the effect that the members of Joshua 8 post does not or will not countenance any athletics or sports including dances, on Memorial Day, May 30th, and request all world veterans, whether members of the Legion or not, to abstain from participating in any such events during that day. The Legion believes that Memorial Day should be observed in all solemnity, respecting the memory of the soldier dead as though of close kin. The Legion will have charge of the program as also of decorating the mounds. The Legion is certainly to be commended for the stand it has assumed.

Mrs. John Blake was taken to the Clearfield hospital, Thursday where she will be under medical treatment for the next three weeks.

Mrs. Harry Bilgen is able to be out and about again after a two week illness.

A class consisting of 44 persons was confirmed in St. Timothy's Catholic church yesterday forenoon. The Rt. Rev. J. M. Gannon bishop of Erie diocese, assisted by Rev. Father Lynch, Rev. Father Ryan and two other priests conducted the impressive ceremony. Confirmation services were held at Gamplan during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fealo, Nantux road, were the recipients of a young daughter in their home, May 11th.

Mrs. J. C. Collins left yesterday for Newton-Hamilton, Huntingdon Mt. Union and Ballwood, where she will visit among relatives and friends for a week.

Mothers' and daughters' meeting at the M. E. church last evening was attended by a large gathering. Refreshments. The P. H. C.'s also passed a pleasant evening by a local entertainment and a "feed."

Burton I. Rockwood will represent the Near East Relief in the Methodist church Sunday evening. Mr. Rockwood has given his life to the uplift of humanity. Beginning as pastor in the Northwestern Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, Mr. Rockwood achieved great success. His accomplishment in this field was so great that he was asked to resign and become the president and founder of the National Junior Prohibition League and in two years he enlisted over 15,000 young men and women in the movement. When the Near East Relief was incorporated by Congress in 1919, Mr. Rockwood was so profoundly touched by the conditions in Armenia and the adjacent countries that he at once presented himself to the national headquarters to do his bit toward alleviating the suffering in the Near East. He was made one of the Near East speakers only after he had

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Kansas City, Mo.—"I was left in a very weak condition after childbirth and no one thought I could ever be any better. Then came the 'Change of Life' and I was not prepared for what I had to suffer. I had to go to bed at times to be perfectly quiet as I could not even stoop down to pick anything from the floor. I did not suffer any pain, but I was decidedly nervous and could not sleep. For nearly two years I was this way, and the doctor was frank enough to tell me that he could do no more for me. Shortly after his I happened to see in a newspaper an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In a few days the medicine was in the house and I began its use and I took it regularly until I was well. I recommended the Vegetable Compound to others when I have the opportunity."—Mrs. MAY LINDQUIST, 2514 Independence Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

acquainted himself with first hand information regarding the political, religious and economic problems confronting that section of the world. During the months in the year when active campaigns for Near East Relief are not in progress, Mr. Rockwood conducts his own lecture tours and one of his best lectures is that entitled "Humanity's Headlight," illustrated with motion pictures and lantern slides which show authentic glimpses of the tragedy in the Near East.

E. L. Gibson fills the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday evening in the interest of the Near East Relief.

A student from the Selinsgrove Seminary will preach in Grace Lutheran church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. The public is cordially invited.

THE HORSESHOE GAME

The first of the series of horseshoe games for the county championship between Johnson and Flint will be pitched on Tuesday evening, May 22, beginning at 7 o'clock sharp on the old machine shop courts, corner Fourth and Reed streets. This contest will be a series of nine 50-point games, the first series next Tuesday evening, the second Friday evening, May 25th, and the finals on the afternoon of Memorial Day, Wednesday, May 30, at 3 o'clock.

This county championship contest has developed into a three-cornered match. Boyd Smith, who has made some progress at the new style or open shoe pitching, has challenged the winner of the Johnson-Flint contest and the indications are that there will be more entries from other towns before the championship is finally decided.

The courts at the old machine shop are in need of some fixing up and it has been decided to do this work on Monday evening next and the Horseshoe Club will be glad to have the assistance of any who are interested in success of the sport. Bring a pick and shovel.

Largely a Matter of Dress When Men Outgrow Their Wives

Fashion Editor Says Too Many Women "Let Themselves Go" When Families Are Grown, While Men Never Forget to be Young

By HEDDA HOYT

Fashion Editor of the United Press (Written for the United Press)

New York, N. Y., May 18 (United Press)—Have you ever wondered why it is that men outgrow their wives?

Reason tells us that the wife who has lived under the same roof with her husband for twenty years, eats the same meals, discussed the same topics and thought the same thoughts, surely must be his equal as far as brains are concerned. She knows more about his business and his aspirations than any other living creature. Still folks say he has outgrown her. Why?

It's because the middle aged woman doesn't keep up with the styles and doesn't try to "keep herself as charming as she was in her youth. The minute a woman says "I'm too bother about clothes," she sounds the death knell to marital bliss. A woman can never be too old to try to make herself as attractive as possible. If she's ninety years of age, she should take an interest in the lace used on her can-

She'll find some lace more flattering than others to her withered face.

Men Stay Young

Men—bless 'em—never grow old at heart. And most of them don't grow old in their dress. Watch them cavorting around the golf links in knickerbockers and plaid hose with a spotty golf cap perched over one eye.

That's what makes them seem young.

Take hats for instance—an elderly man wears the same sort of hats today as do the young college sprigs. He dignified derby has almost gone out of existence. Watch the colorful ties on the old boys! And the old boys! And the newest model collars!

Women seem to think that as soon as their family is grown their business in life is to scold back and watch their children live their lives. This is especially true of women who have daughters. They sacrifice themselves so that their daughters may have clothes of the latest cut and they skip and save and slave to their daughters looking attractive, while they themselves let their husbands slip away from them by dressing poorly. Youth needs less expensive clothes than age, for youth has a multitude of dress flaws. Middle aged women have many things to combat. Besides wrinkles and crowfeet, which demand the most flattering of bonnets, there is that feminine bugaboo—fat. Only the best of gownmakers are adept at concealing bulging lines.

Dressing Older Women

Older women must also have the best of materials for their costumes—lingerie, satins, velvets, brocades and like materials which demand dignity. Youth can be beautiful and alluring in crisp, organdy, voiles, crepe and even ginghams.

It is every woman's business to keep years to try to cope with the fashions of today by wearing flapper-shot clothes. She will only seem older by so doing. But she can find numerous styles which are designed for women of her age and which will make her as attractive as the young miss she calls daughter.

It is every woman's business to keep herself attractive in her husband's eyes. For the successful woman dresses not for women or for men for one man. Better let her husband's supplant butter in the larder than to let a fastidiously gowned woman supplant yourself in her husband's eyes.

Bryan Peeved When Moderator Wishart Breaks Precedent

Indianapolis, May 18.—William Jennings Bryan developed today into a stormy petrel of Presbyterianism when he refused to accept the chairmanship of the committee on Home Missions at the 135th General Assembly tendered him by Dr. Charles Wishart, who defeated Mr. Bryan yesterday in the race for moderator.

His refusal threatened to precipitate a fight between the liberals and the fundamentalists which will overshadow the other work of the assembly.

A practice of long standing is the second man in the vote for moderator is given the chairmanship of the important committee on bills and overtures, the steering committee of the annual meeting.

When Dr. Wishart made up his committee assignments last night, however, he selected Dr. Hugh Walker of Los Angeles, third in the moderator race for this post. The bills and overtures committee will pass on the protest of the Philadelphia Presbyterian against the doctrine preached by Harry Emerson Fosdick, a protest in which Mr. Bryan is very much interested.

Having selected Dr. Walker for the post, the moderator asked Mr. Bryan to select any other and after some consideration the Commoner announced he would be satisfied with the vice moderatorship, but by the time he had reached a decision Dr. Wishart had named J. Spencer Chapman, a Philadelphia lawyer, as vice moderator, and sent the list to the printer, giving Mr. Bryan the minor committee leadership.

Dr. Wishart's committee assignments were accepted by church leaders as a victory for the liberal-minority faction.

FIND SUSPICIOUS SUBSTANCES WHEN BODIES ARE EXHUMED

Railroad Equipment Is Taking Huge Sums And It Continues To Absorb

Washington, D. C., May 19.—Railroad equipment financing has taken another skyward leap with the business revival, carrying with it a boom in the car building industry, data filed by the roads with the Interstate Commerce Commission today shows.

In the past six months the Commission has approved the issuing of over one hundred seventy million dollars in equipment trust certificates for the purpose of acquiring new rolling stock, and on May 18th had applications pending for sixty-eight million dollars more.

The combined application approved and pending for the first six months of the Commission's fiscal year, shows nearly double the total amount of equipment financing authorized in the year ending November 1st, 1922. If the roads continue to project equipment purchases at the present rate, the deficit in equipment estimated by Secretary Hoover to be four thousand locomotives and one hundred fifty thousand cars will be rapidly cut down, officials estimated.

POWERS TO RENEW DEMAND ON CHINA TO HOLD TROOPS

Washington, D. C. May 19.—The United States and other powers today decided to send another note to the Chinese Government, demanding that the Chinese troops surrounding the Shantung bandits be withdrawn.

This announcement was made today by the State Department in making public further reports of the American Legation regarding Americans and other foreign prisoners of the brigands.

A meeting of the Diplomatic Corps at Peking today decided to address the note to the Chinese Foreign Office calling on the Government to fulfill its promise to withdraw the troops.

Peking, May 19.—The situation arising from the kidnapping of foreign tourists near Lin Cheng, two weeks ago was growing darker today.

The Government announced that further negotiations with the bandits to the release of kidnapped tourists was futile. The announcement declared that the bandits evidently have grown in numerical strength and have demanded not only withdrawal of Government troops from the zone considered bandit territory, but from all of Shantung.

Granting of such demands would leave the outlaws masters of the entire province.

Another Philadelphia Payroll Robbery Today; Nelson Valve Co. Loser

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—Two payroll automobiles held up and robbed three employees of the Nelson Valve Company of an eight thousand and eight hundred dollar payroll today.

The highwaymen surrounded the payroll automobile as it neared the Nelson plant and covered the armed employees with revolvers. The men held up were unable to make a defense move. One bandit snatched the satchel, containing the money and the pair fled, escaping in an automobile.

FALLS TO DEATH 400 FEET DOWN DEEP MINE SHAFT

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 19.—Joseph Smith, aged fifty-two, finished his shift at the Ewen Colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal Company and headed the cage with eight other miners to go home to his family. At the top of the shaft Smith lost his balance and fell four hundred feet to the bottom. His body was horribly mangled. Smith had worked twenty-five years at the Ewen Colliery without an accident.

Oregon's Enemies Attempt To Discredit Him In Eyes Of U. S.

Mexico City, Mexico, May 19.—Enemies of the Oregon Government have begun a reign of terror against the United States here in an attempt to discredit the Recognition Conference now in session.

In addition to three attacks made since the first of the month, it is believed that officials of the United States in Mexico City have received threatening letters.

At the palatial Landa home, where commissioners Warren and Payne are living, police were camped throughout the night to prevent automobiles passing within two blocks. One detective explained this extreme measure was ordered to prevent any one throwing a bomb at the home from a passing car.

"FORCE CHINA TO PAY OR WE ARE DOOMED," IS MESSAGE SENT OUT TO POWERS BY ONE OF THE KIDNAPPED

Message From British Man Tells of Shooting of Some Chinese and He Feels the Same Fate.

CHINESE THREATENING

Shanghai, May 18.—Unless the foreign powers unite in forcing the Chinese government to realize that the Suchow bandits are ready to forfeit their lives and those of their captives in their determination to have their demands met, "we are doomed," was the word received here tonight from Leon Friedman, one of the Americans held in the Paotzu stronghold of the brigands.

American and British captives of the Shantung bandits will be shot next Tuesday if the Chinese troops are not withdrawn, according to the "final ultimatum" of the bandits, brought from the mountain stronghold by Marcel Oliver Berube, a Frenchman, one of the prisoners who was released for the purpose.

Berube was released unconditionally by the bandits, it was reported here tonight. When he arrived at Linchang yesterday it was said he was on parole and would have to return to captivity after delivering his message.

Wednesday the bandits shot five of their Chinese captives and "would not hesitate one moment about shooting the foreigners," according to Berube. He also is quoted as saying: "I am satisfied that at the slightest suspicious move on our part or by the Chinese troops, the bandits will kill one or two of us and send out the bodies."

SCHOOL HOUSE FIRE VICTIMS BURIED IN ONE HUGE GRAVE

Cleveland, S. C., May 19.—From the dismal ashes where the Cleveland Township schoolhouse and assembly hall reared its rickety frame as the pride of the cross-roads, the bodies of 76 men, women and children, burned to death in the disaster which has stunned the South, have been removed for immediate burial, today represent 15 per cent of the community's entire population.

Charred beyond recognition, more than half of the bodies recovered from the ruins were buried at dusk last evening in one large grave near the death trap.

Scenes at the open-air funeral were too pitiful to describe. Cleveland, a loosely settled farm township comprising only 490 souls and having no incorporated village at the last census, put on squeaky shoes and standup collars to make fete at the children's "theatricals" in the upstairs hall of the school.

Actors in a farce called "Topsy Turvey," seen after 9 o'clock, jolted once a look in one of the rafters, from which depended one of the kreosote lamps.

In that dreadful instant, Cleveland was plunged from innocent merriment and homely pride in its children to tragedy and horror beyond description. The lamp struck the pine floor with a booming explosion which showered liquid fire upon the country folk in their seats and filled the room with flames.

There was a rush of blazing, screaming humanity for the single stairway. A few nearest the windows smashed the panes and, with their clothing afire, hurried themselves like comets through the darkness. Two who did so had their backs broken by the fall.

Cleveland, S. C., May 19.—With the simple reverence of village people, stricken by a calamity almost too great for them to comprehend, the little township is burying its dead—the seventy-six, including forty-one children, who perished in the school house fire Thursday night. One mound in the cemetery on the edge of the township marks the graves into which sixty-six bodies were lowered amid touching scenes last evening. Today the ten remaining bodies were buried.

The common grave today was covered with great mounds of flowers, tributes from friends and relatives and from distant strangers. The grave in which the sixty-six victims are buried is forty feet by twelve. It is in the cemetery of the Beulah Methodist Church. Candles, doctrines and notes were all forgotten in the service marking interment at sunset last night of the charred remains. Eight ministers, including a Bishop, assisted in the burial services.

Mrs. M. J. Dunsmore and Lex Dunsmore of Philadelphia, were in town yesterday.

E. L. Lathrop of Pittsburgh, is spending several days in Clearfield.

BOY, 7, AND ALL OF FAMILY SAVINGS LOST IN FIRE

Johnstown, Pa., May 19.—Kenneth Phonis, aged seven was burned to death and Jerry Hutsell, aged forty-three and Edward Rondush, thirty-three were badly burned in attempting to rescue the boy when the Hutsell home at Border Station near here was consumed by fire early today.

The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. Almost one thousand dollars in cash, secreted in the house, was burned. The injured men were brought to a hospital here. Both are badly burned about the face and arms.

SECOND CHAPTER OF GRAMPIAN FINANCE OPENS IN COURT

The second chapter in the now celebrated Fleming-Subpina case, which has practically divided Gramplan into two "armed camps," was opened in criminal court this morning when the case of Com. vs. Joseph Subpina was called for trial. Subpina is charged with perjury and "Squire Joe Fleming, former P. R. agent at Gramplan, is the prosecutor.

Last May the relative positions of prosecutor and defendant were reversed as Subpina prosecuted Fleming for embezzlement of $200 which he had given Fleming for investment or the buying of some stocks, which Subpina alleged Fleming told him would keep him and his family in the future without work.

The transaction occurred shortly before Dier & Co., the Philadelphia stock brokers, went broke and Fleming reported to Subpina that his money went up in the smash. Subpina was dissatisfied with the explanation and coming to Clearfield laid his case before Attorneys Chase & Chase and they advised the arrest of Fleming on the embezzlement charge.

The trial resulted in Fleming's conviction and Judge Whitehead, who heard the case, sentenced him to pay a fine of $500, the cost of prosecution and serve 90 days in the county jail. Fleming was thereupon dismissed from the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

At the trial Subpina testified that he had never even got a receipt for his $200, nor had he ever received any return for same. Since that trial Fleming secured a cancelled check for $74, bearing Subpina's signature, which had been issued by the Altoona branch of Dier & Co., and which he

This Week Prolific In Return of Offenders From the Southeastern Part of the County.

4 ARRESTS MADE

County Detective Snyder and State Troopers Barker, Pearce and Kirk will soon have the southeastern end of the county a real desert of Sahara if they continue their activities against liquor law violators in the future as they have been doing in the recent past. Hardly a day passes but these argus-eyed minions of the law make a foray into the land where the moonshine was wont to flow free and uncurbed and return with the scalps of one or more moonshiners dangling at their belts.

On Thursday last they potted large game at Houtzdale, when Dr. R. L. Williams, one of the town's leading physicians, was arrested by the county detective on a charge of violating the liquor law. The alleged violation has to do with the issuing of prescriptions for liquor by the physician who is then said to have supplied the liquor on same. Dr. Williams gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at September criminal court.

John Frisco, an alien residing in Decatur township, also ran foul of the law and will face criminal court in September on one charge. County Detective Snyder, Game Warden Davis and Troopers Barker, Pearce and Kirk dropped in at the Frisco home and picked him up on the charge of possessing fire arms. A search disclosed a .38-caliber "smoke wagon" and three gallons of moonshine also came to light during the search. Frisco was thereupon taken before "Squire McKinnon at Oscoda, where he paid the customary fine of $25 and gave up the gun. The officers then lodged a liquor law violation charge against him.

Friday the raiders swooped down on "Red Row" at Madara, where much red liquor is said to flow every once in a blue moon and Anthony Lebanksy and Wasco Barranski were arrested in the "dry net" when their haul was completed.

Lebanksy was divested of a complete still and outfit, three gallons of whiskey and about fifty gallons of mash. Barranski also was separated from a complete outfit for making his own but consumption had been such a stage in the recent past that but one quart of "oh, be joyful" was on hand for evidence.

Both alleged manufacturers were bailed before "Judge" Ruffner and held them in $500 bail each for their appearance at September criminal court.

BASEBALL SUCCESS DEPENDS ON WHAT THE FANS WILL DO

If the baseball fans of Clearfield can keep their straw lids on their heads and their feet on the ground, Clearfield will have a bang up team this season. The plan to have an all home talent team is the only one that will work successfully and this has been the contention of the Progress for several years. Let those who demand big league baseball go to New York or some other seaport, we care not where, but we want to see a home boy knock the "kiver" off the old apple.

The team is coming along in good shape. Last evening there were fifteen out to practice and player Manager Pierce is adopting McGraw tactics in handling the team. Pierce is boss and that is the right dope. Let the fans give the job over to him and keep hands off. Altogether there are about twenty candidates for the team and the men that are finally selected for the team after several trying workouts will cross bats with a home talent team from Philadelphia on June 7th.

The pitching staff looks good and they are loosening up in fine style

SALVATION ARMY BEGINS TO SEE DAYLIGHT IN ITS CAMPAIGN FOR $20,000 BUILDING SUBSCRIPTION

Woodland and Bigler Men of Brick Works Gave the Army a Wonderful Lift During the Past Week.

THE TOTAL IS NOW $14,000

Wonderful responses from the people of all classes is marking the campaign of the Salvation Army in this city and county to raise the building appeal of $20,000.00 inclusive of the working budget for the year 1923.

This response has been made in spite of the fact that no drug method were tolerated, nothing favoring of a "drive" has been countenanced and in the main the advisory board together with the officers of the Salvation Army have been content to appeal to the public through the local press and by personal contact.

Employees of a few of the brick plants of the local area of the city this week subscribed over $1,000, which, with the amounts coming in from the numerous plans, offices and mines brings up the total subscribed now to nearly $14,000.

Mr. George I. Thurston, the chairman of the board, is enthusiastic over the outcome so far and feels assured and confident that the people of Clearfield interested will quickly do the rest. Reports show that the clerks in the local stores and offices have been doing bravely and wonderfully well, said Reuben Neving and Houston Hartwick today. The Army leaders figure the amounts received when all is in from the store clerks and operatives will be quite impressive. The district supervisor in charge of the appeal together with the local commander, Captain Watson, believe that all the people not yet donating will do so this coming week.

The treasurer of the appeal is Roy I. Fulton, County National bank.

The employees of the lower works and the Hope works of the Harbison Walker Refractories Co. at Woodland subscribed almost $400 to the appeal.

The employees of the William Grove Brick Co. at Bigler subscribed $100 to the Salvation Army building appeal.

U. S. SENATORS REED AND PEPPER COMING HERE WEEK OF JUNE 4

Washington, May 18.—The far-heralded tour of their state in an automobile by Senators Pepper and Reed of Pennsylvania is to begin at Pittsburgh on June 2, according to plans announced today. From Pittsburgh they are to go to Erie and thence through the North tier of counties to the New Jersey border and then south to Philadelphia. The tentative itinerary takes the senators through 33 of the 67 counties of the state. It was emphasized by Pepper that the trip is to be "educational" rather than political.

No Set Stops Billed

Pepper said it had not been decided at what points stops would be made. Consequently, only the counties on the itinerary were disclosed. These, in the order in which they are to be visited, are Allegheny, Butler, Armstrong, Indiana, Clearfield, Jefferson, Clarion, Forest, Venango, Crawford, Erie, Warren, McKean, Elk, Cameron, Potter, Tioga, Bradford, Susquehanna, Lackawanna, Wayne, Pike, Monroe, Luzerne, Columbia, Montour, Northumberland, Schuylkill, Carbon, Lehigh, Bucks, Montgomery and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Pepper and Mrs. Reed expect to accompany their husbands on the tour.

"Wild Rose" Big Hit In Presentation Last Eve. By Girls' Glee Club

Music week in Clearfield came to a close last evening when the Girls' Glee Club of the High School presented the charming little two-act operetta "Wild Rose" under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Hopkins, supervisor of music of the Clearfield schools.

The entire cast of the operetta was selected with care, particular attention being paid to the adaptability of the personality of the actress to the part to be played. Beatrice McDowell as "Rose" and Elizabeth Wilson as "Buttons" being the outstanding stars of the cast.

The choruses went along with a swing and a snap and their performance showed a careful training from start to finish.

New York, May 19.—George the cook in Bertrand's Restaurant, was busy cleaning fish. Suddenly out there came on the point of his knife a diamond ring. It had the initials "D. E. D." and the year "1897" was engraved upon it. It was probably worth six hundred dollars. George is now cleaning fish with renewed vigor.

Diphtheria Flareup Is Cause Of Concern By The Board Of Health

Secretary Gaulin of the Board of Health reports eleven new cases of communicable disease for the past seven days. Of these five were diphtheria, three measles, and one chicken pox. During the same period eleven cases were released from quarantine.

There is at present a total of 11 cases of contagion under quarantine in the town. They are located as follows:

- First Ward: Measles 1.
- Second Ward: Whooping cough 1, measles 1, diphtheria 2.
- Third Ward: Chicken pox 1, measles 1, scarlet fever 4, diphtheria 2.

"FATHER AND SON" NIGHT IS OBSERVED BY THE COINONIANS

The Father and Son movement, called, took deep root with the members of the Coinonia Club of the Trinity Methodist Church as was evidenced by the attendance at last night's observance which reached a total of 122, three fourths of which total at least were boys of tender age. One commentator says, "another of those delightful dinner meetings of the club was held," but we think that this was more than just another of those delightful meetings. A very fine dinner was served by the ladies. Aid of the church assisted by several young ladies. Practically every club member brought a son or a borrowed son for the occasion.

There was a distinct Curwenville flavor to the meeting. Dr. J. C. Collins being the orator. His message was along the line of what a boy could get out of the church and his remarks were very much to the point and brought out a point of view which was entirely new and a revelation to the boys present. Fred Robinson was there also to entertain the audience with the slight of hand and this was as much enjoyed by the adults as the boys. Another item of diversion from the more solid thought was Little Bobby Stevenson, the contortionist and tumbler. Bobby was at his best and a lot of the old boys are jealous of his suppleness. President Warner brought out some interesting historical facts in his introduction of Rev. Collins. He said that Clearfield and Curwenville were operated as one Methodist charge from about 1822 when the field was opened until Civil War times. Clearfield church was given a separate charter June 23, 1900 and the present church edifice was built in 1905. Rev. Collins gave an inspiring talk to the men and boys showing that as youths they get much from schools and churches and therefore owned much of their success to such agencies and they should in later years try to give back to such institutions their strength and support that they may continue

Lots Staked Off and All Are Numbered; Shade Trees Planted; Water Lines and Sewers In.

SEE IT TOMORROW

If anyone is in doubt as to whether the Home Builders Co. means business in its development of the home sites upon the old Weaver tract, he should take a walk up in that direction and see what changes have already been wrought. Every day the weather permits, gangs of men are at work putting things in shape so that at the earliest possible date the lots may be put on the market for the benefit of the large number who are already trying to secure sites for building.

Under the able supervision of Mr. E. W. Hoss the various lines of improvement are being laid out and coordinated. The lots have all been staked off and numbered. They are already at work grading down Leavy avenue and draining and filling over various sections that require it. Shade trees are being set by the borough shade tree commission's corps of men along all the main streets. The water company has laid temporary connections for the water to be used in sewer construction, pavements, and curbs.

The Graham Lumber Co. have started to erect a shelter house and office where the prospective purchaser can see the blue prints and plans, and go over the sales contract with those in charge. Within a very short period therefore we will see houses going up all over this area which will be the pride of the owners as well as of the town. The body of public spirited men who are giving their time and experience to this movement as well as the organization which conceived it, are certainly to be congratulated.

DETOUR STARTS ON GRAMPIAN ROAD AND IT IS PRETTY ROUGH

Pottsville Construction Company have started grading operations and will be pouring concrete toward Gramplan from Regma Watering Trough within the next day or two, and the road was closed last evening.

The detour has been established from Curwenville to Gramplan and to the left from the church at the upper end of Gramplan borough through the Irish settlement and back on to the concrete at Chestnut Grove school house at the top of hill from Hartshorn's store.

Traffic should have no trouble in finding their way over the limits of this detour as signs have been placed at both ends and at all intersecting roads within the limits of the detour section. From Gramplan to a point within one mile of the concrete the dirt road is in excellent condition; the last mile is not so good but entirely travelable and the supervisors of Bloom township have been requested to do the necessary work to put the road in good travelable condition.

Bishop Gannon confirmed a large class at Curwenville yesterday and following the ceremonies here this morning departed in his automobile for Frenchville, where another class was confirmed upon his arrival there.

Mrs. G. W. Thomas and son Arthur and Mrs. R. J. Maxwell spent last evening visiting friends in Philadelphia. They motored over and back in Thomas' new Dodge car.

Woolridge of Woodland and all are agreed today that he was a real entertainer. A fine dinner was served and the evening was enjoyably spent as only gentlemen and good fellows can enjoy.

American detectives arrived to identify the woman and simultaneously with their arrival the woman, who previously maintained silence, attacking any one who sought to learn her secret, broke down and confessed she is the woman who beat to death Mrs. Alberta Meadows.

alleges was a payment on account of the $200, and thereupon made information against Subpina charging him with perjury.

No notes were taken of the testimony at the Fleming trial and the prosecution has resorted to the expedient of summarizing five of the jurors who heard the evidence and convicted Fleming to give testimony as to Subpina's testimony at that trial. This is the first such procedure was had in this court and is among the peculiarities of this litigation. The juror-witnesses all signed an affidavit prepared and presented to them by Fleming previous to his bringing the suit and this affidavit purports to present the alleged perjured evidence.

It was found just before the noon recess that the case could not be completed today and in order that jurors might be able to get to their homes the case was continued until Monday morning. Two or three of the jurors had been examined before the adjournment and the attorneys for the defense had at least one of them recall that the story of the $74 check had been told at the previous trial and was alleged to be a part of another transaction Subpina had with the Altona brokerage concern.

The case has created a great deal of interest in and about Grampian, more than a score of the town's leading citizens being called to court as witnesses.

ACKNOWLEDGE PLOT TO BLOW UP PRISON AT PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—A plot to blow up the eastern penitentiary, with a view of effecting the delivery of the one thousand seven hundred prisoners was frustrated recently, it was learned on high authority today.

J. Washington Logue, Secretary of the Board of Prison Inspectors today admitted that explosives had been found in the Penitentiary but that no harm had been done.

A grand jury investigation of conditions at the penitentiary is now under way and it is understood that their report will describe fully this jail delivery plot.

The explosives, it is said, were in a convict's cell when found. Discovery of the powerful substance resulted when the convict "squealed" because he feared the "stuff" would go off in his cell.

About 50 young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnett at Pine Grove last evening to attend a farewell party given to their son Allen C. Burnett, who is returning to resume his duties in the 81st Co. Coast Artillery, Panama Canal Zone.

A feature of the Colonia Club dinners that make them very enjoyable is the loyalty of Dick Martin's orchestra which has always been on the job to enliven the occasion and the dinner would not be complete without them. Their performance last evening was especially enjoyable. Alex Black contributed to the musical end of the program by two whistling solos and drew a hearty round of applause.

Although the evening was more or less of a male affair, the diners welcomed the talk of Mrs. Flegal who gave the men something to think about. Mrs. Flegal put some very pertinent facts and queries before the diners and her talk will be productive of greater effort along worth while lines so far as boy welfare is concerned.

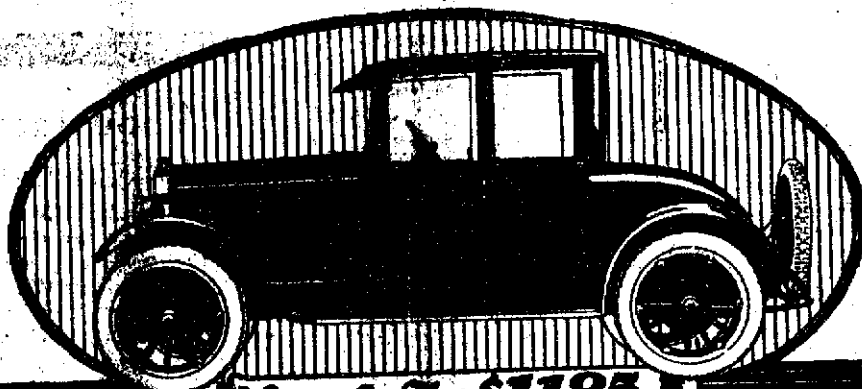

The Colonia seeks to inculcate in the minds and hearts of its members a spirit of communion and fellowship to the common end that the mass spirituality of the church might be improved and their combined efforts be made more effective.

Thos. S. Jackson, of Phillipsburg; Dr. J. Currier, of Grampian, were out of town visitors on Friday.

Mrs. Geo. Thomas of South Fourth street leaves this morning on the 8:20 for Philadelphia, where she goes to attend a convention of the Pocomtocs, expecting to be gone about ten days.

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, May 19.—A sensational confession that she is none other than Clara Phillips, hammer murderer, who was sought throughout the western world since she escaped from the Los Angeles Jail last, was made today by the woman who has been held on suspicion. American detectives arrived to identify the woman and simultaneously with their arrival the woman, who previously maintained silence, attacking any one who sought to learn her secret, broke down and confessed she is the woman who beat to death Mrs. Alberta Meadows.

ENTERTAINS HIS FRIENDS

A delightful party was given at the Crystal Spring Hunting Club last evening which was attended by about thirty invited guests. The host was Ashley E. Woolridge of Woodland and all are agreed today that he was a real entertainer. A fine dinner was served and the evening was enjoyably spent as only gentlemen and good fellows can enjoy.

alleges was a payment on account of the $200, and thereupon made information against Subpina charging him with perjury.

No notes were taken of the testimony of the Fleming trial and the prosecution has resorted to the expedient of summoning five of the jurors who heard the evidence and convicted Fleming to give testimony as to Subpina's testimony at that trial. This is the first such procedure was had in this court and is among the peculiarities of this litigation. The juror-witnesses all signed an affidavit prepared and presented to them by Fleming previous to his bringing the suit and this affidavit purports to present the alleged perjured evidence.

It was found just before the noon recess that the case could not be completed today and in order that jurors might be able to get to their homes the case was continued until Monday morning. Two of three of the jurors had been examined before the adjournment and the attorneys for the defense had at least one of them recall that the story of the $74 check had been told at the previous trial and was alleged to be a part of another transaction on Subpina had with the Altona hotel erage concern.

The case has created a great deal of interest in and about Grampian, more than a score of the town's leading citizens being called to court as witnesses.

GIRL, 20, IS FOUND BRUTALLY SLAIN NEAR HOME BARN

Pateron, N. J., May 19.—The murdered body of Miss Jessie Reikema, aged twenty, was found behind a barn a few blocks from her home early today. Several of the girl's teeth had been knocked out and it is believed she was strangled.

The girl failed to return home last night and her mother, hurrying out this morning to find her, saw a crowd around the barn and recognized her daughter. Miss Reikema went with a friend, another girl, to a picture show last night.

ACKNOWLEDGE PLOT TO BLOW UP PRISON AT PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Pa., May 19.—A plot to blow up the eastern penitentiary, with a view of effecting the delivery of the one thousand seven hundred prisoners was frustrated recently, it was learned on high authority today.

J. Washington Logue, Secretary of the Board of Prison Inspectors today admitted that explosives had been found in the Penitentiary but that no harm had been done.

A grand jury investigation of conditions at the penitentiary is now under way and it is understood that their report will describe fully this jail delivery plot.

The explosives, it is said, were in a convict's cell when found. Discovery of the powerful substance resulted when the convict "squealed" because he feared the "stuff" would go off in his cell.

About 50 young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnett at Pine Grove last evening to attend a farewell party given to their son Allen C. Burnett, who is returning to resume his duties in the 81st Co. Coast Artillery, Panama Canal Zone.

A feature of the Coinonia Club dinners that make them very enjoyable is the loyalty of Dick Martin's orchestra which has always been on the job to enliven the occasion and the dinner would not be complete without them. Their performance last evening was especially enjoyable. Alex Black contributed to the musical end of the program by two whistling solos and drew a hearty round of applause.

Although the evening was more or less of a male affair, the diners welcomed the talk of Mrs. Flegal who gave the men something to think about. Mrs. Flegal put some very pertinent facts and queries before the diners and her talk will be productive of greater effort along worth while lines so far as boy welfare is concerned.

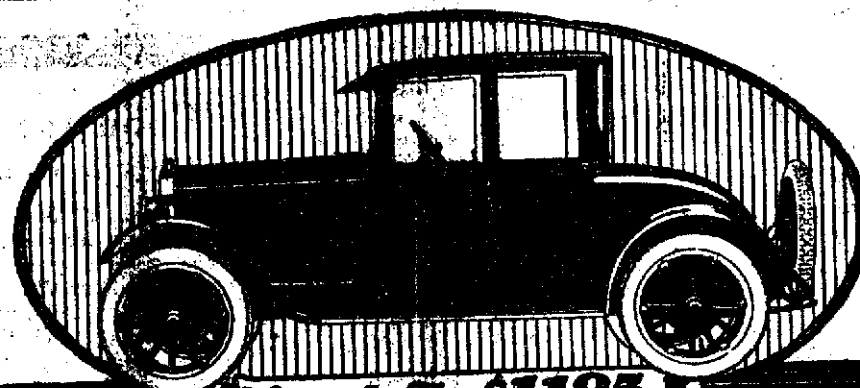

The Coinonia seeks to inculcate in the minds and hearts of its members a spirit of communion and fellowship to the common end that the mass spirituality of the church might be improved and their combined efforts be made more effective.

considering the weather. "An infield that will be the pride of Clearfield is being developed."

This idea of a home talent team has met a ready response at Phillipsburg, Oncoola, DuBois and Houtzdale and some mighty interesting contest will be the inevitable result.

Manager Pierce is still on the look out for good material and all baseball players are invited to go over to the park any evening at 5:30 for practice. Rigid regulations are prescribed. Every player must sign up on arrival for practice and the fellow's name that is missing on this registry of practice will not be permitted to play at a game on the following day.

Now what are the fans going to do about this team. There is just one thing for them to do and that is to boost. It is style now for all hammers to be laid away until October and the loyal fans should immediately buy a lot of muzzles to be used when the knockers' quartette begins to warm up.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

If the practise of allowing kids to patrol the town and community with BB guns shooting at every bird, animal or anything else that takes their fancy is not stopped, some person is going to lose an eye or two right here in Clearfield. There must be at least half a hundred kids in Clearfield to be seen about town every day shooting at sparrows and other birds incessantly. The kids don't care where they shoot or what they shoot at and wounded robins and other property, insectivorous birds have been picked up in several sections of the town as a result of this airgun crusade. A lot of older kids are also engaged in the very dangerous practise of shooting blank cartridges in revolvers. Both these acts are violations of town borough ordinances and state law and a stop should be put to them by our borough authorities before some one is permanently injured. Ugh! town and city in this section has already been forced to take such action

They say that one man's misfortune oftentimes is another man's gain but the fellow who held up the doctors who were unfortunate enough to upset off the state road into his wheat field just beyond Bigler about ten days ago, must have peculiar ideas as to the eternal fitness of things when he demanded his pound of flesh and made the injured crew come across with ten dollars for the damage he alleges the car wrought to his growing wheat when it rased off the road and toppled over into the field. It sure does take all kinds of people to make a world and we hope that the supply of some varieties is small

A total of $70,757,040, all but $17,500,000 of which was annual income from invested capital, has been spent for "the well-being of mankind, throughout the world" by the Rockefeller Foundation, No. 61 Broadway, since its formation ten years ago.

Though public health and medical education have come to be the principal undertakings of the foundation the emergency of war found it ready to spend $22,298,541 for war work, a sum exceeding only the medical education expenditures.

Almost all the work money was spent from 1914 to 1920. It included contributions of $10,000,000 to the American and International Red Cross organizations, and $10,000,000 to the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board, Y. W. C. A. and other camp and community welfare.

Medical education, the largest classification, cost $24,710,859 in the ten years, with nearly 90,000,000 for the Peking Union Medical College and the Shanghai Medical School. Thirty-two hospitals and many medical schools in China, were aided with $2,107,457. Nearly $3,500,000 was spent in the United States for medical education and research and about $8,000,000 in Canada, England, France and Belgium.

There was $6,378,772 spent to study and control hookworm, malaria and yellow fever. $2,139,947 to fight tuberculosis in France and other countries.

Other causes, not included in war work, public health or medical education, cost the foundation $4,503,123. The largest contributions were $1,000,000 for the Palisades Interstate Park and an equal amount for Herbert Hoover's American Relief Administration's feeding of European children. The causes helped included studies of municipal government, unemployment, industrial relations and governmental problems. The foundation bid refuge the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor and other undertakings were also helped.

The administration work that supervised the distribution of the $76,757,040 cost $1,107,123.

and interest being represented by detachable coupons. Principal and interest will be free of any tax levied by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania except succession or inheritance tax. No bid will be considered for less than par and accrued interest. Bonds callable in part or whole at any interest period on or before September 1, 1943, and will be redeemed in numerical order. The School Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

CORPORATION TAX PROPOSAL AGAIN IS CONSIDERED

Harrisburg, May 17.—The latest tax proposal to be given serious consideration is a small levy on either the gross or net profits of corporations, with the exception of public utilities and transportation companies. Such a plan is understood to be advocated by certain Philadelphia representatives, including Franklin Spencer Edmonds. The subject will be discussed at a conference here Monday night in which Senator William S. Vare, T. Larry Eyre and other leaders of the House and Senate will join.

Auditor General Lewis is now collecting data on the subject of such a tax at the request of Edmonds. It is anticipated Lewis will be in position to inform the Senators as to what revenue could be expected from a nominal levy by the time they return here next week.

A four-mill tax of this character is levied by the state of New York. It produces approximately $40,000,000 every two years, just about twice the amount of new revenue needed to meet the emergency condition in the finances of Pennsylvania.

Early in the session Edmonds discussed such a tax with the leaders of the Assembly, but it was given scant consideration. Now, however, with all other tax proposals either killed or in such shape as to preclude serious consideration, the Edmonds plan is coming to the front.

Consideration of this proposal will start the tax mill revolving Monday night all over again and on Tuesday the House will be again thrown into the throes of financial discussion. Lewis is prepared to furnish data requested of him today by a resolution adopted by the House on motion of Representative W. Cloud Alexander of Delaware.

A great deal of mystery attend the purpose of this resolution. It asks the auditor general to furnish an estimate of the revenues for the next two years, the total estimated expenditures, the total estimated appropriation liabilities and the estimated amount of such liabilities that can be lapsed.

In the early days of the session the auditor general had placed on the desk of each member a booklet containing just such information as the Alexander resolution requests. Why he is asked to do the same job over again is inexplicable. The request is made either for the purpose of obtaining from the auditor general any idea he may have of increased revenues above the total given by him when the budget was prepared or for the purpose of again starting the contention that the necessity for new taxation can be obviated by lapsing appropriation liabilities.

Repeatedly Governor Pinchot has assured leaders of the House and Senate he had considered everything that could be lapsed and charged such items off when the budget was prepared and the total liabilities of $29,000,000 arrived at. The fact is, about $15,000,000 of that total will be due in cold cash in the near future and if the state cannot pay it will be forced into the position of a defaulting creditor.

Owl Stopped Wheels of Industry. The curious combination of an owl and a steel trap in which the bird had become caught and flown away, trap and all, alighting on a high-powered electric cable carrying 11,000 volts of electricity to run a mill at Goshen, Conn., stopped the power and threw several hundred men out of work for several hours. Locomes, after several hours' search, located the owl, burned to a cinder.

JEWETT SIX PAIGE BUILT

$1065

High-Pressure Oiling— 2 Gallons a Minute!

LUBRICATION is life—in motors. Because it defeats wear and vibration. Jewett has a hollow crankshaft, high-pressure system, forcing 2 gallons of oil per minute to all main and connecting rod bearings, and spraying the entire internal mechanism. Metal never rubs metal in a Jewett motor—a thin film of oil guards bearings.

The results of such ideal lubrication are real smoothness and decided silence. Further, the continuous oil-stream tends to keep bearings cool, and Jewett takes long distances at high speeds, climbs continued grades, or trudges over roads, without overheating. You know what happens to cars equipped with circulating splash lubrication, under like conditions. Let us show you the Jewett! You try to overheat it.

Political Paragraphs

With the events of the present week at Harrisburg in mind, lady or gentleman—or any child, for that matter—is invited to step to the edge of the platform and tell the rest of us what is going to happen. Any lady or gentleman—or any child—will do. Indeed, the less he or she knows about the political situation, the more likely it is to be correct.

Up to the time the writer left Harrisburg this week for the east, he hadn't found anybody who would venture an opinion on how the scrambled eggs the House had made of the tax-on-appropriation situation was to be unscrambled, or whether it would be unscrambled at all, and if so, when.

The chaos that prevails at Harrisburg surpasses anything old-timers can remember within recent years. The legislative week which began on Monday, May 14, 1923, is quite likely to go echoing down the halls of time for a considerable period yet to come.

In these paragraphs last week the remark was made that the present seven-day period would see either a definite tax program established, or worse confusion on the subject than has yet prevailed. The latter alternative wins. Up to this week, the House did not know where it was going, but it was on its way. Now it is stopped completely.

For the benefit of those who may have lost some of the threads of the narrative, it will be worth while to revise the situation briefly in order that they may understand it fully.

When the House of Representatives assembled last Monday night it had on its calendar for special order of business the three bills which, after months of marking time, the ways and means committee had brought forth as its program to meet the financial demands of the commonwealth for the next two years.

These bills were the Whiteman bill, increasing the tax on gasoline; the Harer bill imposing an additional levy on present subjects of taxation with some exceptions; and the Alexander luxury tax on various forms of tobacco products, and on chewing gum.

These taxes were all applicable for two years only and extended to meet the present emergency in the state's finances in conformity with the Governor's position that some $29,000,000 in past appropriation liability should be wiped off the books once in order that after this two years of stress the state's business might be on a pay-as-you-go basis. These taxes would have been nearly $20,000,000 in additional revenue, which would have been enough to meet all obligations, including the increased demands that come under the terms of the Edmonds Act for school development purposes.

The delay and bickering of months was due to be made up for on Monday night. The taxes decided on were supposed to have met all demands of the various schools of tax thought. They were slated to be passed triumphantly. And their passing was to have been the beginning of the end of the session.

What actually happened, however, was far different from that. When the House began to act on the tax bills, it was discovered to be in a highly temperamental state of mind. It flamed for blood. It swamped the Whiteman gasoline bill by a vote of 163 against and 30 in favor. When it got at the Harer surtax bill it administered an even more overwhelming defeat, which went to the tune of 175 against and 21 in favor.

By this time a sort of hysteria reigned. This was evidenced by the fact that the Alexander luxury tax bill was not even allowed to reach a vote, but was thrown off the calendar. Mr. Alexander made a plea to postpone consideration of it, saying the other two bills had been defeated and the House ought to keep some measure at hand to be amended into some agreeable form of raising the money that would have to be raised.

But he was not listened to. In this miniature French Revolution that was going on, his bill was not even decently guillotined as the others had been, but was beaten and clubbed to death by the mob in the form of Mr. Spangler's motion to drop it from the calendar, which was done.

The principal battle had been preceded by a skirmish on the manufacturers' tax, a fact which no one should lose sight of, because its outcome motivated considerable of what was later done.

The session had scarcely started when Representative Armstrong moved that the ways and means committee be discharged from consideration of the Stark bill, imposing a four-mill tax on the capital stock of manufacturing concerns. The group of rural members who are strongly devoted to the manufacturers' tax proposition had looked on this move as their opportunity to get the tax before the House. It takes only sixty votes to discharge a committee from consideration of a bill and they had sixty votes.

However, Representative John M. Flynn sprang a parliamentary surprise on them. He countered with a motion that Mr. Armstrong's motion be indefinitely postponed. Sixty votes counted for naught in disposing of the Flynn motion, which was carried by a majority vote of 103 ayes to 75 nays. The proposal to discharge the committee was therefore indefinitely tabled and the rural members could not get at the manufacturers' tax bill. This fact solidified them later in voting against all the measures that were brought up. If they could not have the manufacturers' tax, they would have no substitute.

At this precise moment, therefore, the House stands in the position of having passed and sent to the Senate an appropriation bill which avowedly calls for over $20,000,000 more than the present state taxes will yield, and of having definitely and specifically defeated all tax measures designed to raise the necessary balance.

That, of course, is a difficult, not to say an impossible situation. Since no new tax bills may be introduced if one member objects, and since the only bills in the possession of the ways and means committee are four or five that were long since discarded as having no practical value in solving the problem, it is evident there is only one possible way the House can meet its difficulty, which is by reversing itself and reconsidering one or more of the bills it defeated with a hue and cry last Monday.

If the temper of the House continues to be what it was last Monday night, there is no chance of its reconsidering. The remarkable thing about the demonstration was that it showed an overwhelming majority of the House unanimous against any and all forms of new taxation. Not even the most confirmed tax skeptics were prepared for the lengths to which the slaughter went.

Should the House abide by that attitude, a most serious situation will present itself. The appropriation bill will carry amounts over $20,000,000 in excess of the state's expectation of revenue. Either the General Assembly or the Governor will have to cut it by that amount, and if past experience is the guide accepted, the task will be left to the Governor.

Mrs. Pinchet has already reacted to that possibility. Sources recognized as exploiting the Governor's viewpoint have already declared it to be his intention to make the reduction in the form of protecting the appropriations to the common schools at the expense of the institutions of higher education, the appropriations of state aid to charitable institutions, and the rewards for township road construction.

It is possible to see in that declaration rather an attempt to make the members of the House stop, look and listen than anything else. The items the Governor is made to say he is considering reducing represent a collective in one place of the appropriations the average legislator takes most to heart. There are few districts in the state, for instance, where it would not be more or less embarrassing for the members to return home with the news they had done something which prevented their local hospitals, homes and other charitable institutions from receiving state aid money.

Already there are attempts being made to straighten matters out, of course. There is considerable talk of a sales tax. But the official fixers are first trying another line. The talk is that the rural members have agreed to support a two cent tax on gasoline provided they get a two mill tax on manufacturing corporations instead of the four mill tax called for by the Stark bill. Both bills, already defeated, would have to be reconsidered.

Em's stories are said to have been sent to Joseph R. Grundy, political head of the manufacturing interests, representing that Republican organization leaders would welcome this solution of their difficulties and asking him to agree to it on behalf of the manufacturers. Anyone who desires to, may be optimistic in forecasting a favorable decision from him.

Fa'ing that, there is no telling what may happen. The session is now nearly five months old and it has got nowhere on its principal problem. There is no one today who can offer tangible hope that it will get anywhere. And always in the background lurks the spectre that if it adjourns without solving these problems, the Governor will call it back in special session to try again.

COURT NOTES

The jury in the case of Com. vs. T. D. Forsyth, Walter Hyde and Clark Green which was tried before Judge Bell yesterday, returned a verdict this morning in which they found Messrs. Forsyth and Hyde guilty of assault and battery and riot and acquitted Green of both charges. The prosecutor was a drayman from Somerset county, who charged that he was assaulted and mobbed when he went to Kellytown and attempted to move the household goods of a miner who had gone to Kellytown from Somerset county and desired to return.

James Hardy, a 17-year-old O'ceco boy, who entered a plea of guilty to charge of rape, and who was given an indeterminate sentence to the reformatory by Judge Bell, was taken to Huntingdon today by Sheriff Lowell.

EFFORT TO BREAK SECURITY PRICES OF LITTLE AVAL

New York, N. Y., May 19.—Another determined effort to break security values was made in the short session today. It met with some success, several new lows being recorded for the year while steel common touched its old low. Sellers did not have everything their own way, however. Meeting resistance, which induced covering and gave a substantial rally. Oil and coppers behaved well through the reaction. California Petroleum proved the test feature scoring and gained to about a point following a favorable earnings report.

It is a long time since rumor mongers were so busy as they have been recently. Commission houses received several rumors apparently calculated for the purpose of driving the public and traders to sell their securities.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

If the practice of allowing kids to patrol the town and community with BB guns shooting at every bird, animal or anything else that takes their fancy is not stopped, some person is going to lose an eye or two right here in Clearfield. There must be at least half a hundred kids in Clearfield to be seen about town every day shooting at sparrows and other birds incessantly. The kids don't care where they shoot or what they shoot at and wounded robins and other prey of insectivorous birds have been picked up in several sections of the town as a result of this airgun crusade. A lot of older kids are also engaged in the very dangerous practice of shooting blank cartridges in revolver. Both these acts are violations of law and a stop should be put to them by our borough authorities before some one is permanently injured. Every town and city in this section has already been forced to take such action.

They say that one man's misfortune is another man's gain, but the fellow who held up the doctors who were unfortunate enough to upset off the state road into his wheat field just beyond Bigler about ten days ago, must have peculiar ideas as to the eternal fitness of things when he demanded his pound of flesh and made the injured crew come across with ten dollars for the damage he alleges the car wrought to his growing wheat when it raced off the road and toppled over into the field. It sure does take all kinds of people to make a world and we hope that this supply of some varieties is small.

A total of $76,757,040, all but $17,500,000 of which was annual income from invested capital, has been spent for "the well-being of mankind, throughout the world" by the Rockefeller Foundation, No. 61 Broadway, since its formation ten years ago.

Though public health and medical education have come to be the principal undertakings of the foundation, the emergency of war found it ready to spend $22,295,541 for war work, a sum exceeding only the medical education expenditure.

Almost all the money spent was spent from 1915 to 1920. It included contributions of $1,841,159 to the American and International Red Cross organizations, and $10,974,299 to the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board, Y. W. C. A. and other camp and community welfare.

Medical education, the largest class, has cost $24,717,859 in the ten years, with nearly $9,000,000 for the Peking Union Medical College and the Shanghai Medical School. Thirty-two hospitals and many medical schools in China, were aided with $12,707,467. Nearly $3,500,000 was spent in the United States for medical education and research and about $8,000,000 in Canada, England, France and Belgium.

There was $6,378,072 spent to study and control hookworm, malaria and yellow fever. $2,119,945 to fight tuberculosis in France and Belgium. $1,119,945 to fight tuberculosis in France and Belgium. $1,119,945 to fight tuberculosis in France and Belgium.

Other causes, not included in war work, public health or medical education, cost the foundation $4,503,128. The largest contributions were $1,000,000 for the Palisades Interstate Park and an equal amount for Herbert Hoover's American Relief Administration's feeding of European children. The causes helped include studies of municipal government, unemployment, industrial relations and governmental problems. The foundation had refuge the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor and other undertakings were also helped.

CORPORATION TAX PROPOSAL AGAIN IS CONSIDERED

Harrisburg, May 17.—The latest tax proposal to be given serious consideration is a small levy on either the gross or net profits of corporations, with the exception of public utilities and transportation companies. Such a plan is understood to be advocated by certain Philadelphia representatives, including Franklin Spencer Edmonds. The subject will be discussed at a conference here Monday night in which Senator William S. Vare, T. Larry Byre and other leaders of the House and Senate will join.

Auditor General Lewis is now collecting data on the subject of such a tax at the request of Edmonds. It is anticipated Lewis will be in position to inform the Senators as to what revenue could be expected from a nominal levy by the time they return here next week.

A four-mill tax of this character is levied by the state of New York. It produces approximately $40,000,000 every two years, just about twice the amount of new revenue needed to meet the emergency condition in the finances of Pennsylvania.

Early in the session Edmonds discussed such a tax with the leaders of the Assembly, but it was given scant consideration. Now, however, with all other tax proposals either killed or in such shape as to preclude serious consideration, the Edmonds plan is coming to the front.

Consideration of this proposal will start the tax mill revolving Monday night all over again and on Tuesday the House will be again thrown into the throes of financial discussion. Lewis is prepared to furnish data requested of him today by a resolution adopted by the House on motion of Representative W. Cloud Alexander of Delaware.

A great deal of mystery attend the purpose of this resolution. It asks the auditor general to furnish an estimate of the revenues for the next five years, the total estimated expenditures, the total estimated appropriation liabilities and the estimated amount of such liabilities that can be lapsed.

In the early days of the session the auditor general had placed on the desk of each member a booklet containing just such information as the Alexander resolution requests. Why he is asked to do the same job over again is inexplicable. The request is made either for the purpose of obtaining from the auditor general any idea he may have of increased revenues above the total given by him when the budget was prepared or for the purpose of again starting the contention that the necessity for new taxation can be obviated by lapsing appropriation liabilities.

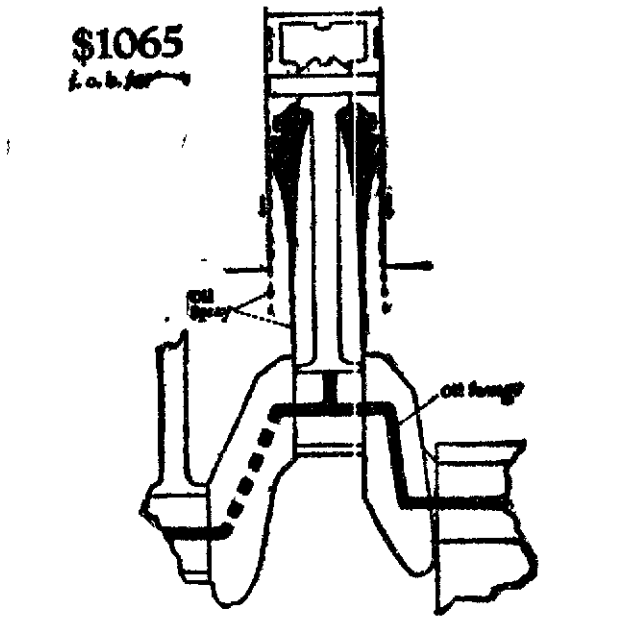

Repeatedly Governor Pinchot has assured leaders of the House and Senate he had considered everything that could be lapsed and charged such items off when the budget was prepared and the total liabilities of $29,000,000 arrived at. The fact is, about $15,000,000 of that total will be due in cold cash in the near future and if the state cannot pay it will be forced into the position of a defaulting creditor.

Owl Stopped Wheels of Industry.—The curious combination of an owl and a steel trap in which the bird had become caught and flown away, trap and all, lighting on a high-powered electric cable carrying 11,000 volts of electricity to run a mill at Goodwyn, Conn., stopped the power and threw several hundred men out of work for several hours. Lynemag, after several hours' search, located the owl, burned to a cinder.

JEWETT SIX PAIGE BUILT

High-Pressure Oiling— 2 Gallons a Minute!

LUBRICATION is life—in motors. Because it defeats wear and vibration. Jewett has a hollow crankshaft, high-pressure system, forcing 2 gallons of oil per minute to all main and connecting rod bearings, and spraying the entire internal mechanism. Metal never rubs metal in a Jewett motor—a thin film of oil guards bearings.

The results of such ideal lubrication are real smoothness and decided silence. Further, the continuous oil-stream tends to keep bearings cool, and Jewett takes long distances at high speeds, climbs continued grades, or trudges rough roads, without overheating. You know what happens to cars equipped with circulating splash lubrication, under like conditions. Jewett shows you the Jewett! You try to overtake.

Curwensville's Own Column

Prof. Grant Norris has been chosen and accepted the honor of being the Memorial Day orator. His address last year was one of the best and most logical ever delivered in Curwensville.

Sunday, May 27th, the memorial sermon will be preached in the Baptist church, Rev. Cameron, the pastor, being the speaker.

The American Legion post of Curwensville have promulgated an edict to the effect that the members of Joshua 8 post does not or will not countenance any athletics or sports including dances, on Memorial Day, May 30th, and request all world veterans, whether members of the Legion or not, to abstain from participating in any such events during that day. The Legion believes that Memorial Day should be observed in all solemnity, respecting the memory of the soldier dead as though of close kin. The Legion will have charge of the program as also of decorating the mounds. The Legion is certainly to be commended for the stand it has assumed.

Mrs. John Blake was taken to the Clearfield hospital, Thursday where she will be under medical treatment for the next three weeks.

Mrs. Harry Bilgen is able to be out and about again after a two week illness.

A class consisting of 44 persons was confirmed in St. Timothy's Catholic church yesterday forenoon. The Rt. Rev. J. M. Gannon bishop of Erie diocese, assisted by Rev. Father Lynch, Rev. Father Ryan and two other priests conducted the impressive ceremony. Confirmation services were held at Gamplan during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fealo, Nantux road, were the recipients of a young daughter in their home, May 11th.

Mrs. J. C. Collins left yesterday for Newton-Hamilton, Huntingdon Mt. Union and Ballwood, where she will visit among relatives and friends for a week.

Mothers' and daughters' meeting at the M. E. church last evening was attended by a large gathering. Refreshments. The P. H. C.'s also passed a pleasant evening by a local entertainment and a "feed."

Burton I. Rockwood will represent the Near East Relief in the Methodist church Sunday evening. Mr. Rockwood has given his life to the uplift of humanity. Beginning as pastor in the Northwestern Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, Mr. Rockwood achieved great success. His accomplishment in this field was so great that he was asked to resign and become the president and founder of the National Junior Prohibition League and in two years he enlisted over 15,000 young men and women in the movement. When the Near East Relief was incorporated by Congress in 1919, Mr. Rockwood was so profoundly touched by the conditions in Armenia and the adjacent countries that he at once presented himself to the national headquarters to do his bit toward alleviating the suffering in the Near East. He was made one of the Near East speakers only after he had

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Kansas City, Mo.—"I was left in a very weak condition after childbirth and no one thought I could ever be any better. Then came the 'Change of Life' and I was not prepared for what I had to suffer. I had to go to bed at times to be perfectly quiet as I could not even stoop down to pick anything from the floor. I did not suffer any pain, but I was decidedly nervous and could not sleep. For nearly two years I was this way, and the doctor was frank enough to tell me that he could do no more for me. Shortly after his I happened to see in a newspaper an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In a few days the medicine was in the house and I began its use and I took it regularly until I was well. I recommended the Vegetable Compound to others when I have the opportunity."—Mrs. MAY LINDQUIST, 2514 Independence Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

acquainted himself with first hand information regarding the political, religious and economic problems confronting that section of the world. During the months in the year when active campaigns for Near East Relief are not in progress, Mr. Rockwood conducts his own lecture tours and one of his best lectures is that entitled "Humanity's Headlight," illustrated with motion pictures and lantern slides which show authentic glimpses of the tragedy in the Near East.

E. L. Gibson fills the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday evening in the interest of the Near East Relief.

A student from the Selinsgrove Seminary will preach in Grace Lutheran church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. The public is cordially invited.

THE HORSESHOE GAME

The first of the series of horseshoe games for the county championship between Johnson and Flint will be pitched on Tuesday evening, May 22, beginning at 7 o'clock sharp on the old machine shop courts, corner Fourth and Reed streets. This contest will be a series of nine 50-point games, the first series next Tuesday evening, the second Friday evening, May 25th, and the finals on the afternoon of Memorial Day, Wednesday, May 30, at 3 o'clock.

This county championship contest has developed into a three-cornered match. Boyd Smith, who has made some progress at the new style or open shoe pitching, has challenged the winner of the Johnson-Flint contest and the indications are that there will be more entries from other towns before the championship is finally decided.

The courts at the old machine shop are in need of some fixing up and it has been decided to do this work on Monday evening next and the Horseshoe Club will be glad to have the assistance of any who are interested in success of the sport. Bring a pick and shovel.

LESSON FOR MAY 20

ELIJAH, THE BRAVE REFORMER

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 18:1-46.
GOLDEN TEXT—Choose you this day
whom ye will serve.—Joshua 24:15.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Malachi 4:
5, 6; Isaiah 11:1, 15:14; Luke 13:7, John 12:28, James 5:17, 18.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Elijah and the Poor
Woman.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Elijah's Wonderful
Victory.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC
—How Elijah Defied Wickedness.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC
—What Modern Reformers Can Learn
from Elijah.

1. ELIJAH MEETS ABAB. (vv. 17, 18).
At the Lord's command Elijah
showed himself to Abab. When Elijah last was seen by Abab he announced that rain would only be given by his word (17:1). In connection with the prophet's appearance before
the king, rain was promised.

2. ELIJAH'S ANSWER. (v. 18). He denied the charge and boldly declared that the enmity which had befallen the nation was caused by the idolatry of Abab and his family.

3. ELIJAH'S CHALLENGE. (vv. 19-24).
1. The People Assembled. (vv. 19-20).
The king convened the people
at the urgent request of Elijah.

2. Elijah's Ripping Call to Decision
(vv. 21-24). (1) The question asked
"Who is your God, Baal or the Lord?"
(v. 21). Many of the people had not wholly forsaken God. They attempted to worship both God and Baal. Many today are halting between two opinions. They are halting between self and Savior, sin and holiness, mammon and God. (2) The holiness of the people. (v. 21). The silence of the people. (v. 21). Two sacred fires were to be provided—one to be offered to Baal, the other to God. The god who answered by fire was to be the God. The people consented that this was a fair test. Accepted sacrifice is the grand and supreme test
by which God is calling upon men everywhere to make the decision between Christ and the heathen gods.

3. The Test Applied. (vv. 25-29).
1. The Offering by the Prophets of Baal (vv. 25-26). Elijah gave the prophets of Baal the first opportunity
to prove to the people as to whether Baal was a real god. The real difference in the issue of prayer is the person to whom prayer is made.

2. The Offering by Elijah (vv. 30-33).
(1) The people invited near
(v. 30). His object was for them to see the entire proceedings in order
to fully grasp the genuineness of the test. (2) The altar repairs (vv. 30-32).
Elijah took twelve stones representing the united nation. (3) The offering on the altar (vv. 33-35). After the bullock was in place he had four barrels of water three times
emptied upon the sacrifice and the wood so as to fill the trench about
the altar. So sure was Elijah that God's power was sufficient that he
heaped difficulty upon difficulty. (4).
Elijah's prayer (v. 36, 37). (a) It
was based upon covenants (v. 36).
The foundation upon which all real
prayer rests is covenant relationship.
(b) Its object was God's exaltation
(v. 36). Elijah was jealous for God's glory. His supreme desire was to honor and magnify the Lord. (c) It was for the salvation of the people.
(v. 37). His heart yearned after Israel. He was most desirous that they should come to God. (5) The result (vv. 38, 39). (a) The fire of the Lord fell and consumed not only the
sacrifice but the wood, stones and
dust, even heaping up the water in the trench. (b) The people fell on their faces and confessed that the Lord was the God.

4. The Execution of Baal's Prophe-
ts. (v. 40).
The reason for this drastic action
was that Israel's government was a theocracy. God was their king.
Idolatry was treason against the king. These false prophets were traitors to God and therefore should die.
V. God's Prophet Vindicated. (vv.
41-46).
The proof that Elijah was God's
prophet was incomplete till rain came.
Israel under his ministry had now
turned back to God and God made known unto them His graciousness.

How Much Is Lost.
Would that we could at once paint
with the eyes—in the long way from
the eye, through the arm, to the pencil,
how much is lost!—Lessing.

Our Wants.
The stoical schemes of supplying our wants by lopping off our desires is like cutting off our feet when we want
shoes.—Swift.

Deserving Trust.
He deserves small trust who is not

LESSON FOR MAY 20

ELIJAH, THE BRAVE REFORMER

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 18:1-46.
GOLDEN TEXT—Choose you this day
whom ye will serve.—Joshua 24:15.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Malachi 4:
5, 6; Isaiah 11:1, 15:14; Luke 13:7, John
12:28, James 5:17, 18.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Elijah and the Poor
Woman.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Elijah's Wonderful
Victory.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC
—How Elijah Defied Wickedness.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC
—What Modern Reformers Can Learn
from Elijah.

1. ELIJAH MEETS ABAB. (vv. 17, 18).
At the Lord's command Elijah
showed himself to Abab. When Eli-
jah last was seen by Abab he
announced that rain would only be given
by his word (17:1). In connection with the prophet's appearance before
the king, rain was promised.

2. ELIJAH'S ANSWER. (v. 18). He denied the charge and boldly declared that the enmity which had
befallen the nation was caused by
the idolatry of Abab and his family.

3. ELIJAH'S CHALLENGE. (vv. 19-24).
1. The People Assembled. (vv. 19-20).
The king convened the people
at the urgent request of Elijah.

2. Elijah's Ripping Call to Decision
(vv. 21-24). (1) The question asked
"Who is your God, Baal or the Lord?"
(v. 21). Many of the people had not wholly forsaken God. They attempted to worship both God and Baal. Many today are halting between two opinions. They are halting between self and Savior, sin and holiness, mammon and God. (2) The holiness of the people. (v. 21). The silence of the people. (v. 21). Two sacred fires were to be provided—one to be offered to Baal, the other to God. The
god who answered by fire was to be the God. The people consented that this was a fair test. Accepted sacrifice is the grand and supreme test
by which God is calling upon men
everywhere to make the decision between Christ and the heathen gods.

3. The Test Applied. (vv. 25-29).
1. The Offering by the Prophets of Baal (vv. 25-26). Elijah gave the prophets of Baal the first opportunity
to prove to the people as to whether Baal was a real god. The real difference in the issue of prayer is the person to whom prayer is made.

2. The Offering by Elijah (vv. 30-33).
(1) The people invited near
(v. 30). His object was for them to see the entire proceedings in order
to fully grasp the genuineness of the
test. (2) The altar repairs (vv. 30-32).
Elijah took twelve stones representing the united nation. (3) The
offering on the altar (vv. 33-35). After the bullock was in place he had
four barrels of water three times
emptied upon the sacrifice and the
wood so as to fill the trench about
the altar. So sure was Elijah that God's power was sufficient that he
heaped difficulty upon difficulty. (4).
Elijah's prayer (v. 36, 37). (a) It
was based upon covenants (v. 36).
The foundation upon which all real
prayer rests is covenant relationship.
(b) Its object was God's exaltation
(v. 36). Elijah was jealous for God's glory. His supreme desire was to honor and magnify the Lord. (c) It
was for the salvation of the people.
(v. 37). His heart yearned after Israel. He was most desirous that they should come to God. (5) The result (vv. 38, 39). (a) The fire of the Lord fell and consumed not only the
sacrifice but the wood, stones and
dust, even heaping up the water in
the trench. (b) The people fell on
their faces and confessed that the Lord was the God.

4. The Execution of Baal's Prophe-
ts. (v. 40).
The reason for this drastic action
was that Israel's government was a theocracy. God was their king.
Idolatry was treason against the king. These false prophets were
traitors to God and therefore should die.
V. God's Prophet Vindicated. (vv.
41-46).
The proof that Elijah was God's
prophet was incomplete till rain came.
Israel under his ministry had now
turned back to God and God made
known unto them His graciousness.

How Much Is Lost.
Would that we could at once paint
with the eyes—in the long way from
the eye, through the arm, to the pencil,
how much is lost!—Lessing.

Our Wants.

wants by lopping off our desires is
like cutting off our feet when we want
shoes.—Swift.

Largely a Matter of Dress When Men Outgrow Their Wives

Fashion Editor Says Too Many Women "Let Themselves Go" When Families Are Grown, While Men Never Forget to be Young

By HEDDA HOYT

Fashion Editor of the United Press (Written for the United Press)

New York, N. Y., May 18 (United Press)—Have you ever wondered why it is that men outgrow their wives?

Reason tells us that the wife who has lived under the same roof with her husband for twenty years, eaten the same meals, discussed the same topics and thought the same thoughts, surely must be his equal as far as brains are concerned. She knows more about his business and his aspirations than any other living creature. Still folks say he has outgrown her. Why?

It's because the middle aged woman doesn't keep up with the styles and doesn't try to keep herself as charming as she was in her youth. The minute a woman says "I'm too bother about clothes," she sounds the death knell to marital bliss. A woman can never be too old to try to make herself as attractive as possible. If she's ninety years of age, she should take an interest in the lace used on her can-

She'll find some lace more flattering than others to her withered face.

Men Stay Young

Men—bless them—never grow old at heart. And most of them don't grow old in their dress. Watch them cavorting around the golf links in knickerbockers and plaid hose with a spotty golf cap perched over one eye.

That's what makes them seem young.

Take hats for instance—an elderly man wears the same sort of hats today as do the young college sprigs. He dignified derby has almost gone out of existence. Watch the colorful ties on the old boys! And the old boys! And the newest model collars!

Women seem to think that as soon as their family is grown their business in life is to scuffle back and watch their children live their lives. This is especially true of women who have daughters. They sacrifice themselves so that their daughters can have clothes of the latest cut and they skip and save and slave to their daughters looking attractive, while they themselves let their husbands slip away from them by dressing poorly. Youth needs less expensive clothes than age, for youth has a multitude of dress flaws. Middle aged women have many things to combat. Besides wrinkles and crowfeet, which demand the most flattering of bonnets, there is that feminine bugaboo—fat. Only the best of gownmakers are adept at concealing bulging lines.

Dressing Older Women

Older women must also have the best of materials for their costumes.—Lining satins, velvets, brocades and like materials which demand dignity. Youth can be beautiful and alluring in crisp organdy, voiles, tulle and even gingham.

It is every woman's business to keep years to try to cope with the fashions of today by wearing flapper-shot clothes. She will only seem older by so doing. But she can find numerous styles which are designed for women of her age and which will make her as attractive as the young miss she calls daughter.

It is every woman's business to keep herself attractive in her husband's eyes. For the successful woman dresses not for women or for men for one man. Better let her husband's supplant butter in the larder than to let a fastidiously gowned woman supplant yourself in her husband's eyes.

New York may get the 1924 conventions of both political parties. It is the only town with enough licker or a convention.

Sitting on a tack will limber up stiff joints quickly.

Several were hurt when a Macon (Ga.) grandstand stood as much as a grandstand can stand.

Are your eyes going back on you? See an oculist and quit looking at nothing girl pictures.

A Detroit man kept cool while his wife was robbed, because he was asked in the ice box.

Convict escaped in Atlanta, Ga., dressed as a girl, so if they don't catch him pneumonia will.

We know what the Fourth of July is for. It is so they can hold a big prize fight somewhere.

If you have a swollen hand, soak in water; if you have a swell head, soak with a club.

Resting is considered excellent for hat tired feeling.

Do your trousers sag at the knees? Wearing them backwards a few days takes the bag out.

If you are going to sleep on your back always be sure to close your mouth before starting.

Have you got company? Try treating them as members of the family and they will leave.

Bryan Peeved When Moderator Wishart Breaks Precedent

Indianapolis, May 18.—William Jennings Bryan developed today into a stormy petrel of Presbyterianism when he refused to accept the chairmanship of the committee on Home Missions at the 135th General Assembly tendered him by Dr. Charles Wishart, who defeated Mr. Bryan yesterday in the race for moderator.

His refusal threatened to precipitate a fight between the liberals and the fundamentalists which will overshadow the other work of the assembly.

A practice of long standing is the second man in the vote for moderator is given the chairmanship of the important committee on bills and overtures, the steering committee of the annual meeting.

When Dr. Wishart made up his committee assignments last night, however, he selected Dr. Hugh Walker of Los Angeles, third in the moderator race for this post. The bills and overtures committee will pass on the protest of the Philadelphia Presbyterian against the doctrine preached by Harry Emerson Fosdick, a proponent in which Mr. Bryan is very much interested.

Having selected Dr. Walker for the post, the moderator asked Mr. Bryan to select any other and after some consideration the Commoner announced he would be satisfied with the vice moderatorship, but by the time he had reached a decision Dr. Wishart had named J. Spencer Chapman, a Philadelphia lawyer, as vice moderator, and sent the list to the printer, giving Mr. Bryan the minor committee leadership.

Dr. Wishart's committee assignments were accepted by church leaders as a victory for the liberal-minority faction.
